

AUSTRALASIAN STUDY OF PARLIAMENT GROUP CONFERENCE

Australian Capital Territory

CANBERRA
5—7 August 2010

THE GOOD, THE BAD AND THE UGLY

PERCEPTIONS OF PARLIAMENT

This year's theme is designed to explore issues such as:

- Parliament and public opinion (incorporating the conflation of parliament and executive)
- The role of the media (including focus on conflict, lack of reporting of legislative work)
- Scandal and corruption (sex, bullying, rorts)
- Order in the house—parliamentary standards
- Does civics education improve perceptions?

Papers: Persons interested in submitting a paper are requested to forward an abstract of no more than 300 words to aspg@parliament.act.gov.au by 7 May 2010.

Program and registration details will be available from the ASPG ACT Chapter website from early June.

Conference sessions will be held at the ACT Legislative Assembly and Parliament House.
