ROLE OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee examines all Bills and subordinate legislation presented to the Assembly. It does not make any comments on the policy aspects of the legislation. The Committee's terms of reference contain principles of scrutiny that enable it to operate in the best traditions of totally non-partisan, non-political technical scrutiny of legislation. These traditions have been adopted, without exception, by all scrutiny committees in Australia. Non-partisan, non-policy scrutiny allows the Committee to help the Assembly pass into law Acts and subordinate legislation which comply with the ideals set out in its terms of reference.

BILLS:

Bills—Comment

The Committee has examined the following Bill and offers these comments on it:

Workers Compensation Amendment Bill 2005

This is a Bill to amend the Workers Compensation Act 1951 and the Workers Compensation Supplementation Fund Act 1980 and extends the operation of the temporary reinsurance provisions for acts of terrorism.

The Committee does not have any human rights issues to raise in regard to this Bill. However, the Committee does note that a compatibility statement was not tabled with the Bill as required under section 37 of the Human Rights Act 2004.

INTERSTATE AGREEMENTS

The Committee has not been advised of any negotiations in respect of an Interstate Agreement.
