Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory
Register of Members' Interests

Explanatory Note

General

The purpose of the Statement of Registrable Interests form is to place on the public record Members' and Ministers' interests which may conflict, or may be seen to conflict, with their public duty.

No form can cover all possible circumstances and Members and Ministers should consequently bear in mind the purpose and spirit of the return in deciding which matters should be registered.

Ministers should complete a Statement in their capacity as a Minister and another Statement in their capacity as a Member of the ACT Legislative Assembly. These guidelines apply to both documents, and references made to the "Member" should be read as applying also to the Minister.

Note: There is the need to include under all headings interests to the extent to which the Member is aware of them, of the Member's spouse (including de facto spouse), and any who are wholly or mainly dependent on the Member for support.

When interests are held jointly with a spouse or dependants, the interests need to be included only as interests of the Member with an appropriate notation such as "jointly owned with spouse".

Where interests could be included under more than one heading, it is suggested they need be included only under the most specific heading unless two aspects need to be disclosed (e.g. real estate, plus a mortgage liability on that real estate).

Note: That both beneficial interest and trustee responsibilities (except as trustee of a deceased estate where neither the Member, the Member's spouse nor dependants are beneficiaries of the estate) should be specified.

- Items which might be listed under more specific headings (e.g. investments gifts received, etc) need not be included here.
- Private life assurance policies should be included but Assembly superannuation entitlements need not be included.
- As a general rule of thumb, items of under $5,000 value may not require inclusion under this heading unless they are of a nature which might be sensitive to implications of conflict of interest.

10. The nature of other substantial sources of income

	Nature of income
Self	nil
Spouse	nil
Dependants	nil

Explanatory Notes:

- The Member's own salary and allowances as a Member of the Assembly need not be included.
- Include a spouse's income from employment or a business undertaking and any income received by the Member, the Member's spouse or dependants from investments, annuity arrangements, pensions or under governmental assistance schemes (but not including family allowances). There is no need to show the actual amount received. A simple reference to "income for investments set out above" is sufficient for investment income.

Note: No minimum income is specified as notifiable and Members will need to use their discretion in this regard. As a general rule of thumb, income over $1,000 per annum might be notifiable but smaller amounts from sources which might, in the judgement of the Member, involve sensitivity or be capable of misconstruction should be included.

11. Gifts valued at more than $250 received from official sources, or at more than $100 where received from other than official sources.

	Details of gifts
Self	nil
Spouse	nil
Dependants	nil

Explanatory Note:

- "Sponsored travel" means any free or concessional travel undertaken by the Member, the Member's spouse or dependants sponsored wholly or partly by a person, organisation, business or interest group or foreign Government or its representative. It does not include the travel entitlements received by a Member, the Member's spouse or dependants under any determination by the Remuneration Tribunal nor travel undertaken as a Member of an official Assembly delegation. The purpose for which the travel was undertaken should be shown.
- "Hospitality" refers to free or concessional accommodation provided to the Members, the Member's spouse or dependants wholly or partly by any person, organisation, business or interest group or foreign Government or its representative. It includes the provision of free or concessional meals provided as part of an accommodation arrangement but does not include hospitality provided in a purely social way by friends or colleagues. Entertainment received from concerned constituents and interest groups legitimately exercising their powers of political persuasion, explanation, or argument on the merits of an issue to further a particular cause or concern need not be included. There is also no need to include entertainment received in common with significant numbers of other Members or persons such as a reception or dinner hosted by a High Commissioner or Ambassador.

In all cases in deciding whether travel or hospitality should be included in a return, a Member should exercise his or her judgement having regard to any appearance of conflict of interest that may arise.

Dear Mr Duncan

Statement of Registrable Interests – Amendments

I am writing to you in relation to my Statement of Registrable Interests. I wish to advise you of various amendments to my current Statement.

On 7 April 2009, I travelled to New Zealand to attend the biennial conference of the Australasian Council of Public Accounts Committees. I was accompanied on this trip by my wife and son. I need to add to my Statement, at Section 12, that my wife and son also had their travel upgraded by Qantas from economy class to business class for our flight from Melbourne to Wellington. I would appreciate you amending Section 12 of my Statement of Registrable Interests to record these amendments.

On 13 November 2009, I returned to Australia with my wife and son after attending two conferences in Italy. When I presented our tickets for seat allocation, I was told by Qantas that we had been upgraded from economy class to business class for the leg of the flight from London to Bangkok. I would appreciate you amending Section 12 of my Statement of Registrable Interests to record these amendments.

In relation to Section 13 of my Statement of Registrable Interests: Membership of any organisation, I have recently become a member of the Institute of Brewing and Distilling. My membership of this Institute should be added to my Statement.

If you have any questions about these matters, I will be pleased to provide any further information you require.

Yours sincerely

I had been invited to attend this Conference as the Guest Speaker. I returned to Australia on 31 July 2010. I need to add to my Statement the receipt of a benefit for attending this Conference of air fares valued at $1,000 and accommodation valued at $354. I would appreciate you amending Section 12 of my Statement of Registrable Interests to record these amendments.

On 7 November 2010, my wife and I attended a concert at the AIS Arena. I received two tickets to this concert valued at a total of $290. I would appreciate you amending Section 12 of my Statement of Registrable Interests to record this amendment.
