In relation to: Dyslexia Awareness Month p 18

MRS KIKKERT: October was National Dyslexia Awareness Month, why was not one government school prepared to get involved in a national campaign?

Ms Yvette Berry: The answer to the Member’s question is as follows:–

Dyslexia Awareness Month was promoted to schools on the What’s New section of the Education Intranet. This included promotion of the “Red Paper Plane Challenge Day” and corresponding ideas for lessons and activities consistent with this year’s campaign theme “Get Onboard”.

Individual schools decided if and how they recognised Dyslexia Awareness Month. Data is not collected centrally on schools’ participation.
