resolution of no confidence means a resolution passed in accordance with section 19.

subordinate law means an instrument of a legislative nature (including a regulation, rule or by-law) made under an enactment.

Supreme Court means the Supreme Court of the Territory existing under the Supreme Court Act 1933 of the Territory.

Territory:

- (a) when used in a geographical sense, means the Australian Capital Territory; and
- (b) when used in any other sense, means the body politic established by section 7.

Territory authority:

- (a) except in Part VII—means a body, whether corporate or not:
 - (i) established by or under enactment; or
 - (ii) otherwise established by the Executive; or
- (b) in Part VII—means a body corporate established for a public purpose by or under enactment and having power to borrow money.

Territory Gazette means the Australian Capital Territory Gazette.

4 Meaning of day on which election held

A reference in this Act to the day on which an election has been, is, or is to be, held, is a reference to the polling day for that election.

5 Meaning of day on which result of election declared

Where the results of a general election are declared on different days, a reference in this Act to the day on which the result of the election is declared is a reference to the last of those days.

6 Powers includes functions and duties

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

- (a) a reference to powers includes a reference to functions or duties; and
- (b) a reference to the exercise of powers includes a reference to the performance of functions or duties.

Part II—Australian Capital Territory

7 Establishment of body politic

The Australian Capital Territory is established as a body politic under the Crown by the name of the Australian Capital Territory.

Part III—Legislative Assembly

Division 1—Constitution of Assembly

8 Legislative Assembly

- (1) There shall be a Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Assembly shall consist of 17 members.
- (3) The regulations may fix a different number of members for the purpose of subsection (2), but regulations shall not be made for that purpose except in accordance with a resolution passed by the Assembly.

9 Oath or Affirmation of Allegiance

- (1) A member shall, before taking his or her seat, make and subscribe an oath or affirmation in accordance with the form in Schedule 1.
- (2) The oath or affirmation shall be made before the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Australian Capital Territory or some person authorised by the Chief Justice.
- (3) This section has effect subject to any enactment.

10 Term of office of member

The term of office of a member duly elected begins at the end of the day on which the election of the member is declared and, unless sooner ended by resignation or disqualification, or by dissolution of the Assembly, ends on the polling day for the next general election.

11 Presiding Officer of Assembly

- (1) At the first meeting of the Assembly after a general election, the members present shall, before any other business, elect one of their number to be the Presiding Officer of the Assembly.
- (2) The title of the Presiding Officer shall be determined by the Assembly.
- (3) If there is a vacancy in the office of Presiding Officer (not because of a dissolution of the Assembly), then:
 - (a) if the vacancy happens at a meeting, the members present shall, before any further business, elect one of their number to be the Presiding Officer; or
 - (b) if the vacancy happens at any other time, at the next meeting the members present shall, before any other business, elect one of their number to be the Presiding Officer.
- (4) This section does not prevent the Assembly from appointing a person to preside at meetings in the absence of the Presiding Officer, but a person holding office as a Minister shall not be so appointed.

12 Vacation of office by Presiding Officer

- (1) A person holding office as Presiding Officer vacates the office:

- (a) immediately before a Presiding Officer is elected at the first meeting of the Assembly after a general election;
- (b) when the person resigns office as Presiding Officer;
- (c) when the person ceases to be a member of the Assembly (not because of a general election); or
- (d) when an absolute majority of the members of the Assembly vote in favour of the person's removal from office.

(2) A person who has vacated the office of Presiding Officer may be re-elected.

13 Resignation of members

- (1) A member may resign office as a member by written notice delivered to a person authorised by the Assembly to receive it.
- (2) The Presiding Officer may resign office as Presiding Officer by written notice delivered to a person authorised by the Assembly to receive it.
- (3) The person receiving a notice of resignation must arrange for it to be laid before the Assembly as soon as practicable after receiving that notice.

14 Disqualification of member

- (1) A member vacates office if the member:
 - (a) at any time after the beginning of the first meeting of the Assembly after a general election, is not qualified to take a seat as a member;
 - (b) is absent without permission of the Assembly from:
 - (i) such number of consecutive meetings as is specified by enactment for the purposes of this subparagraph; or
 - (ii) if no such enactment is in force—4 consecutive meetings of the Assembly; or
 - (c) takes or agrees to take, directly or indirectly, any remuneration, allowance, honorarium or reward for services rendered in the Assembly, otherwise than under section 73.
- (2) A person who has vacated an office of member may be re-elected.
- (3) Paragraph (1)(c) does not apply to a superannuation scheme:
 - (a) that is established by or under an enactment; and
 - (b) under which any or all of the following benefits are provided:
 - (i) benefits for a person upon ceasing to hold an office of member;
 - (ii) benefits for a person who is or was a member in the event of the permanent or temporary disability of the person;
 - (iii) benefits for dependants of a person who is or was a member in the event of the death of the person.
- (4) In subsection (3):

dependant has the same meaning as in the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.

15 Conflict of interest

- (1) A member of the Assembly who is a party to, or has a direct or indirect interest in, a contract made by or on behalf of the Territory or a Territory authority shall not take part in a discussion of a matter, or vote on a question, in a meeting of the Assembly where the matter or question relates directly or indirectly to that contract.

- (2) A question concerning the application of subsection (1) shall be decided by the Assembly, and a contravention of that subsection does not invalidate anything done by the Assembly.

16 Dissolution of Assembly by Governor-General

- (1) If, in the opinion of the Governor-General, the Assembly:
 - (a) is incapable of effectively performing its functions; or
 - (b) is conducting its affairs in a grossly improper manner;the Governor-General may dissolve the Assembly.
- (2) Where the Assembly is dissolved:
 - (a) the Governor-General:
 - (i) shall appoint a Commissioner for the purposes of this section; and
 - (ii) may, at any time, give directions to the Commissioner about the exercise of the powers of the Executive; and
 - (b) a general election shall be held on a day specified by the Commonwealth Minister by notice published in the Commonwealth Gazette, being not earlier than 36 days, nor later than 90 days, after the dissolution of the Assembly.
- (3) The Commonwealth Minister shall not specify a day that is the polling day for an election of the Senate or a general election of the House of Representatives.
- (4) The Commissioner:
 - (a) shall exercise all the powers of the Executive in accordance with any directions given by the Governor-General; and
 - (b) if it is necessary to issue or spend public money of the Territory when not authorised to do so by or under enactment—may do so with the authority of the Governor-General.
- (5) The Commissioner shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as are determined by the Governor-General.
- (6) Unless sooner terminated by the Governor-General, the term of office of the Commissioner ceases at the beginning of the first meeting of the Assembly held after the next general election.
- (7) The powers of the Governor-General under this section shall be exercised by Proclamation.
- (8) The Commonwealth Minister shall cause a statement of the reasons for the dissolution to be:
 - (a) published in the Commonwealth Gazette as soon as practicable after the day of the dissolution; and
 - (b) laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after the day of the dissolution.
- (9) A person holding office, or acting as, Chief Executive of the Chief Minister's Department must not be appointed as a Commissioner under this section.

- (10) If the name of the office of Chief Executive, or of the Chief Minister's Department, is changed, a reference in subsection (9) to that office or Department is to be taken to be a reference to the office or Department under the new name.

Division 2—Procedure of Assembly

17 Times of meetings

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Assembly shall meet:
 - (a) within 7 days after the result of a general election is declared; and
 - (b) within 7 days after a written request for a meeting, signed by such number of members as is fixed by enactment, is delivered to the Presiding Officer.
- (2) The Presiding Officer shall, by notice published in the Territory Gazette, convene a meeting when it is necessary to do so to comply with subsection (1).
- (3) If the Presiding Officer is required by subsection (2) to convene a meeting within a particular period and:
 - (a) the office of Presiding Officer is vacant, whether or not a person has been previously elected to the office; or
 - (b) the Presiding Officer is unable, or refuses or fails, to convene a meeting within that period;the Commonwealth Minister shall, by notice published in the Commonwealth Gazette, convene the meeting within that period or, if that is not practicable, within 7 days after that period.

18 Procedure at meetings

- (1) At a meeting of the Assembly, a quorum is formed by an absolute majority of the members.
- (2) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting, unless a special majority is required by the standing rules and orders.
- (3) The member presiding at a meeting has a deliberative vote only, and, if the votes on a question are equal, the question shall pass in the negative.
- (4) Subject to subsection 15(1) and to the standing rules and orders, the Presiding Officer shall preside at all meetings of the Assembly at which he or she is present.

19 Resolution of no confidence in Chief Minister

A resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister has no effect unless:

- (a) it affirms a motion that is expressed to be a motion of no confidence in the Chief Minister;
- (b) at least one week's notice of the motion has been given in accordance with the standing rules and orders; and
- (c) the resolution is passed by at least the number of members necessary to be a quorum.

20 Minutes of meetings

- (1) The Assembly shall cause minutes to be kept of meetings.
- (2) A copy of any minutes so kept shall, on request made by a person:
 - (a) be made available for inspection by the person; or

(b) be supplied to the person on payment of such fee (if any) as is fixed by or under enactment.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to minutes of a committee meeting held in private.

21 Standing rules and orders

(1) Subject to this Act, the Assembly may make standing rules and orders with respect to the conduct of business.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), standing rules and orders may be made:

- (a) for the election of a deputy (however titled) to the Presiding Officer; and
- (b) conferring on that deputy such powers as are specified in the rules and orders (including powers of the Presiding Officer under this Act).

Part IV—Powers of Legislative Assembly

22 Power of Assembly to make laws

- (1) Subject to this Part and Part VA, the Assembly has power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Territory.
- (2) The power to make laws extends to the power to make laws with respect to the exercise of powers by the Executive.

23 Matters excluded from power to make laws

- (1) Subject to this section, the Assembly has no power to make laws with respect to:
 - (a) the acquisition of property otherwise than on just terms;
 - (c) the provision by the Australian Federal Police of police services in relation to the Territory;
 - (d) the raising or maintaining of any naval, military or air force;
 - (e) the coining of money;
 - (g) the classification of materials for the purposes of censorship.
- (1A) The Assembly has no power to make laws permitting or having the effect of permitting (whether subject to conditions or not) the form of intentional killing of another called euthanasia (which includes mercy killing) or the assisting of a person to terminate his or her life.
- (1B) The Assembly does have power to make laws with respect to:
 - (a) the withdrawal or withholding of medical or surgical measures for prolonging the life of a patient but not so as to permit the intentional killing of the patient; and
 - (b) medical treatment in the provision of palliative care to a dying patient, but not so as to permit the intentional killing of the patient; and
 - (c) the appointment of an agent by a patient who is authorised to make decisions about the withdrawal or withholding of treatment; and
 - (d) the repealing of legal sanctions against attempted suicide.
- (2) The regulations may omit any of the paragraphs in subsection (1) or reduce the scope of any of those paragraphs.

24 Powers, privileges and immunities of Assembly

- (1) In this section:

powers includes privileges and immunities, but does not include legislative powers.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of section 22, the Assembly may also make laws:
 - (a) declaring the powers of the Assembly and of its members and committees, but so that the powers so declared do not exceed the powers for the time being of the House of Representatives or of its members or committees; and
 - (b) providing for the manner in which powers so declared may be exercised or upheld.
- (3) Until the Assembly makes a law with respect to its powers, the Assembly and its members and committees have the same powers as the powers for the time being of the House of Representatives and its members and committees.

- (4) Nothing in this section empowers the Assembly to imprison or fine a person.

25 Notification of enactment

- (1) Where a proposed law has been passed by the Assembly, the Chief Minister, or another person authorised by enactment to do so, shall publish in the Territory Gazette a notice of the proposed law having been passed and of the place or places where copies of the law can be purchased.
- (2) Where a proposed law is notified in the Territory Gazette, it takes effect upon the day of notification or, if the proposed law otherwise provides, as so provided.
- (3) At the time of publication of the notice under subsection (1) of the passing of a proposed law or as soon as practicable thereafter, copies of the law shall be made available for purchase at the place, or at each of the places, specified in the notice.
- (4) Where, on the day of publication of the notice under subsection (1) of the passing of a proposed law, there are no copies of the law available for purchase at the place, or at one or more of the places, specified in the notice, the Chief Minister shall cause to be laid before the Assembly, within 15 sitting days of the Assembly after that day, a statement that copies of the law were not so available and the reason why they were not so available.
- (5) Failure to comply with the requirements of subsection (3) or (4) in relation to a proposed law shall not be taken to constitute a failure to comply with subsection (1).
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) (inclusive) cease to have effect on and after the commencement of an enactment providing for:
- (a) the publication of a notice of the passing of a proposed law by the Assembly otherwise than under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the commencement of such a proposed law.

26 Special procedures for making certain enactments

- (1) The Assembly may pass a law (in this section called the entrenching law) prescribing restrictions on the manner and form of making particular enactments (which may include enactments amending or repealing the entrenching law).
- (2) The entrenching law shall be submitted to a referendum of the electors of the Territory as provided by enactment.
- (3) If a majority of the electors approve the entrenching law, it takes effect as provided by section 25.
- (4) While the entrenching law is in force, an enactment to which it applies has no effect unless made in accordance with the entrenching law.
- (5) If an entrenching law includes the requirement (however expressed) that an enactment or enactments be passed by a specified majority of the members (in this subsection called a special majority), the same requirement shall be taken to apply to the entrenching law, so that it must be passed by:
- (a) that special majority; or
 - (b) if it specifies different special majorities for different enactments—the highest of those special majorities.
- (6) If an entrenching law passed by the Assembly:

- (a) includes the requirement (however expressed) that an enactment or enactments be submitted to a referendum of the electors of the Territory; and
- (b) includes provision (however expressed) that, to have effect, the referendum is to be passed by a specified majority of the electors (in this subsection called a special majority);

the same requirement shall be taken to apply to the entrenching law, so that the reference in subsection (3) to a majority of the electors shall be taken to be a reference to:

- (c) that special majority; or
- (d) if the entrenching law specifies different special majorities for different enactments—the highest of those special majorities.

27 Crown may be bound

Except as provided by the regulations, an enactment does not bind the Crown in right of the Commonwealth.

28 Inconsistency with other laws

- (1) A provision of an enactment has no effect to the extent that it is inconsistent with a law defined by subsection (2), but such a provision shall be taken to be consistent with such a law to the extent that it is capable of operating concurrently with that law.
- (2) In this section:

law means:

- (a) a law in force in the Territory (other than an enactment or a subordinate law); or
- (b) an order or determination, or any other instrument of a legislative character, made under a law falling within paragraph (a).

Note: Section 17 of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 deals with inconsistency between awards and agreements made under that Act, and laws of the Territory.

29 Avoidance of application of enactments to Parliament

- (1) In this section:

enactment includes a part of an enactment.

Parliamentary precincts means the precincts defined by subsection 3(1) of the Parliamentary Precincts Act 1988.

- (2) If either House of the Parliament passes a resolution declaring that an enactment made after the commencing day does not apply:
 - (a) to that House;
 - (b) to the members of that House; or
 - (c) in the Parliamentary precincts;
 the resolution has effect according to its tenor and the enactment does not apply accordingly.
- (3) A resolution under subsection (2):
 - (a) does not have effect in respect of the application of an enactment on a day before the day on which the resolution is passed; and
 - (b) has effect, to the extent that the enactment ceases to apply, as if the enactment were repealed by another enactment.

30 Judicial notice

All courts, judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of enactments and subordinate laws.

31 Publication of enactments

The Executive shall publish copies of enactments and subordinate laws and make them available for purchase by the public.

33 Application of Acts Interpretation Act

Neither paragraph 46(1)(a) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 nor paragraph 13(1)(a) or (b) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 applies to:

- (a) an enactment;
- (b) a subordinate law; or
- (c) an instrument required by this Act to be published in the Territory Gazette.

34 Certain laws converted into enactments

- (1) In this section:

Imperial Act has the same meaning as in the Imperial Acts Application Ordinance 1986 of the Territory.

law includes a provision of a law.

- (2) A law specified in Schedule 2 shall be taken to be an enactment, and may be amended or repealed accordingly.
- (4) A law (other than a law of the Commonwealth) that, immediately before the commencing day:
 - (a) was in force in the Territory; and
 - (b) was an Ordinance, an Act of the Parliament of New South Wales or an Imperial Act;shall be taken to be an enactment, and may be amended or repealed accordingly.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to a law specified in Schedule 5.
- (9) This section does not limit the power of the Assembly to make laws with respect to the common law.

35 Disallowance of enactments

- (1) In this section:

enactment includes a part of an enactment.

- (2) Subject to this section, the Governor-General may, by legislative instrument, disallow an enactment within 6 months after it is made.
- (4) The Governor-General may, within 6 months after an enactment is made, recommend to the Assembly any amendments of the enactment, or of any other enactment, that the Governor-General considers to be desirable as a result of considering the enactment.

- (5) Where the Governor-General so recommends any amendments, the time within which the Governor-General may disallow the enactment is extended for 6 months after the date of the recommendation.
- (6) Upon publication in the Commonwealth Gazette of notice of the disallowance of an enactment, the disallowance has, subject to subsection (7), the same effect as a repeal of the enactment.
- (7) If a provision of a disallowed enactment amended or repealed an enactment that was in force immediately before the commencement of that provision, the disallowance revives the previous enactment from the date of publication of the notice of disallowance as if the disallowed provision had not been made.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, an enactment shall be taken to be made when it is notified in the Territory Gazette under this Part.

Part V—The Executive

36 Australian Capital Territory Executive

There shall be an Australian Capital Territory Executive.

37 General powers of Executive

The Executive has the responsibility of:

- (a) governing the Territory with respect to matters specified in Schedule 4;
- (b) executing and maintaining enactments and subordinate laws;
- (c) exercising such other powers as are vested in the Executive by or under a law in force in the Territory or an agreement or arrangement between the Territory and the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory; and
- (d) exercising prerogatives of the Crown so far as they relate to the Executive's responsibility mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

38 Executive matters not limited by Schedule 4

A matter specified in Schedule 4 does not limit the generality of any other matter specified in that Schedule.

38A Executive's powers under Commonwealth Acts

An enactment may provide for the exercise by a member or members of the Executive of powers vested in the Executive by or under an Act.

39 Membership of Executive

- (1) The members of the Executive are the Chief Minister and such other Ministers as are appointed by the Chief Minister.
- (2) The exercise of the powers of the Executive is not affected merely because of a vacancy or vacancies in the membership of the Executive.

40 Chief Minister for the Territory

- (1) At the first meeting of the Assembly after a general election, the members present shall, after electing a Presiding Officer and before any other business, elect one of their number to be the Chief Minister for the Territory.
- (2) If there is a vacancy in the office of Chief Minister (not because of a dissolution of the Assembly), then:
 - (a) if the vacancy happens at a meeting, the members present shall elect one of their number to be the Chief Minister; or
 - (b) if the vacancy happens at any other time, the Presiding Officer shall, by notice published in the Territory Gazette, convene a meeting as soon as practicable and, at the meeting, the members present shall elect one of their number to be the Chief Minister.
- (3) If a resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister is passed, the members present shall elect one of their number to be the Chief Minister.

41 Ministers for the Territory

- (1) The Chief Minister must appoint Ministers for the Territory from among the members of the Assembly.
- (2) The number of Ministers is to be as provided by enactment.
- (2A) Until provision is made, the number of Ministers is not to exceed 5.
- (3) A Minister may be dismissed from office at any time by a person holding office as Chief Minister at that time.

42 Presiding Officer or Deputy Presiding Officer not to be a Minister

The person for the time being holding office as Presiding Officer or Deputy Presiding Officer is not eligible to be a Minister.

43 Ministerial portfolios

- (1) A Minister shall administer such matters relating to the powers of the Executive as are allocated to that Minister from time to time by the Chief Minister.
- (2) The Chief Minister may authorise a Minister or Ministers to act on behalf of the Chief Minister or any other Minister.
- (3) The Chief Minister shall publish particulars of such arrangements in the Territory Gazette.

44 Deputy Chief Minister for the Territory

- (1) The Chief Minister shall appoint one of the Ministers to be Deputy Chief Minister for the Territory.
- (2) The Deputy Chief Minister shall act as Chief Minister at any time when there is a vacancy in the office of Chief Minister or the Chief Minister is absent from duty or from Australia or is, for any other reason, unable to exercise the powers of Chief Minister.
- (3) While the Deputy Chief Minister is acting as Chief Minister, he or she shall exercise all the powers of the Chief Minister other than the dismissal of a Minister.
- (4) The exercise of the powers of the Chief Minister by the Deputy Chief Minister during the absence of the Chief Minister from Australia does not affect the exercise of a power by the Chief Minister.

45 Resignation of Ministers

- (1) The Chief Minister may resign office as Chief Minister by written notice delivered to the Presiding Officer.
- (2) Any other Minister may resign office as Minister by written notice delivered to the Chief Minister.

46 Vacation of office by Ministers

- (1) A person holding office as Chief Minister vacates the office:
 - (a) when the person resigns the office; or
 - (b) when the person ceases to be a member (not because of a general election); or

- (c) immediately before a Chief Minister is elected after:
 - (i) the next general election; or
 - (ii) the passing of a resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister.
- (1A) A person holding office as a Minister (other than the Chief Minister) vacates the office:
 - (a) when the person resigns the office; or
 - (b) when the person ceases to be a member (not because of a general election); or
 - (c) when the person is dismissed from office by the Chief Minister; or
 - (d) immediately before another Chief Minister is elected after:
 - (i) the next general election; or
 - (ii) the passing of a resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister.
- (2) A person who has vacated an office of Minister may be re-elected or re-appointed.

47 Vacancies in all Ministerial offices

- (1) If:
 - (a) at any time after the election of a Chief Minister, all the Ministerial offices (including the office of Chief Minister) have become vacant; and
 - (b) it is necessary to exercise powers of the Executive for the purpose of maintaining the provision and control of essential services;the Commonwealth Minister may exercise those powers for that purpose until a Chief Minister is elected.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the vacancies result from a dissolution of the Assembly.

48 Resolution of no confidence in Chief Minister

- (2) If:
 - (a) on a particular day, the Assembly passes a resolution of no confidence in the Chief Minister;
 - (b) the Assembly does not, within the period of 30 days after that day, elect a Chief Minister; and
 - (c) the Governor-General does not, within that period of 30 days, dissolve the Assembly under section 16;a general election shall be held on a day specified by the Commonwealth Minister by notice published in the Commonwealth Gazette, being not earlier than 36 days, nor later than 90 days, after the end of that period of 30 days.
- (3) The Commonwealth Minister shall not specify a day that is the polling day for an election of the Senate or a general election of the House of Representatives.

Part VA—The Judiciary

48A Jurisdiction and powers of the Supreme Court

- (1) The Supreme Court is to have all original and appellate jurisdiction that is necessary for the administration of justice in the Territory.
- (2) In addition, the Supreme Court may have such further jurisdiction as is conferred on it by any Act, enactment or Ordinance, or any law made under any Act, enactment or Ordinance.
- (3) The Supreme Court is not bound to exercise any powers where it has concurrent jurisdiction with another court or tribunal.

48AA ACT laws may give concurrent jurisdiction to the Federal Court of Australia

Nothing in section 48A is to be taken to imply that a law of the Australian Capital Territory may not confer on the Federal Court of Australia original or appellate jurisdiction in any matter in respect of which, by virtue of section 48A, jurisdiction is conferred on the Supreme Court.

48B Retirement age of Judges etc. of the Supreme Court

- (1) This section applies to the following offices:
 - (a) Chief Justice of the Supreme Court;
 - (b) Judge (other than additional Judge) of the Supreme Court;
 - (c) Master of the Supreme Court.
- (2) An enactment that changes the retirement age in relation to an office to which this section applies does not affect the term of office of a person who was appointed to such an office before the commencement of that enactment unless the person has consented in writing to the application of the enactment to him or her.

48C Judicial commission

- (1) An enactment relating to the establishment of a judicial commission for the Territory must provide that:
 - (a) the commission is to be constituted by persons who:
 - (i) have been Justices of the High Court or are, or have been, Judges of a superior court of record of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory (other than persons who are Judges of the Supreme Court of the Territory appointed under subsection 7(1) of the Supreme Court Act 1933 of the Territory); and
 - (ii) are appointed by the Executive for such terms as are determined in accordance with the enactment; and
 - (b) the commission is to have the function (whether alone or together with another body or authority of the Territory) of investigating, and reporting to the Attorney-General of the Territory on, complaints concerning the conduct or the physical or mental capacity of a judicial officer.
- (2) A judicial commission may have functions in addition to the function mentioned in paragraph (1)(b).

48D Removal of a judicial officer from office

An enactment relating to the removal from office of a judicial officer must provide that:

- (a) a judicial officer may only be removed from office if:
 - (i) a judicial commission appointed by the Executive to examine a complaint concerning the judicial officer has submitted to the Attorney-General of the Territory a report that:
 - (A) sets out the facts found by the commission in relation to the subject matter of the complaint; and
 - (B) states that, in the commission's opinion, the facts so found could amount to misbehaviour or physical or mental incapacity (as the case may be) warranting the officer's removal from office; and
 - (ii) the Assembly:
 - (A) has determined that the facts so found amount to misbehaviour or physical or mental incapacity identified by the commission; and
 - (B) has passed a motion requiring the Executive to remove the officer from office on the ground of that misbehaviour or incapacity; and
- (b) a judicial officer may only be removed from office by the Executive in writing.

Part VII—Finance

57 Public money

- (1) The public money of the Territory shall be available for the expenditure of the Territory.
- (2) The receipt, spending and control of public money of the Territory shall be regulated as provided by enactment.

58 Withdrawals of public money

- (1) Subject to subsection 16(4), no public money of the Territory shall be issued or spent except as authorised by enactment.
- (2) The public money of the Territory may be invested as provided by enactment.

59 Financial relations between Commonwealth and Territory

- (1) The Commonwealth shall conduct its financial relations with the Territory so as to ensure that the Territory is treated on the same basis as the States and the Northern Territory, while having regard to the special circumstances arising from the existence of the national capital and the seat of government of the Commonwealth in the Territory.
- (2) The Territory is not liable to bear the cost, or part of the cost, of:
 - (a) any power of the Commonwealth relating to a matter referred to in section 23;
 - (b) administering a law, or a provision of a law, referred to in Schedule 5; or
 - (c) any other power of the Commonwealth, or of a Commonwealth authority, relating to the Territory.

60 Borrowing from Commonwealth

The Minister for Finance may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, out of money appropriated by the Parliament for the purpose, lend money to the Territory or to a Territory authority on such terms and conditions as that Minister determines in writing.

65 Proposal of money votes

- (1) An enactment, vote or resolution (proposal) for the appropriation of the public money of the Territory must not be proposed in the Assembly except by a Minister.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a member other than a Minister from moving an amendment to a proposal made by a Minister unless the amendment is to increase the amount of public money of the Territory to be appropriated.

Part VIII—Elections to Assembly

66 Interpretation

In this Part:

electoral enactment means an enactment described in subsection 67A(1).

66A Part to bind Crown

This Part binds the Crown in right of the Territory, but nothing in this Act renders the Crown liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

66B Election of members

The members are to be elected in accordance with this Part.

67 Qualifications of candidates

- (1) The qualifications of a person to be elected and take a seat as a member shall be as provided by enactment.

67A General elections

- (1) The members to be elected at a general election are to be elected as provided by sections 67, 67C and 67D and by an enactment that:
 - (a) provides for general elections; and
 - (b) complies with section 67B; and
 - (c) was made after polling day for the second general election.

67B Electoral enactment

An electoral enactment is to provide, among other things:

- (a) for the times of general elections; and
- (b) for a Roll of the electors of the Territory for the purposes of general elections; and
- (c) that every person who is entitled to be enrolled on that Roll and who is resident in the Territory is required to claim enrolment; and
- (d) if the electoral enactment provides for the distribution of the Territory into electorates—that a redistribution of the Territory into electorates is to commence not later than 6 years after the previous distribution or redistribution.

67C Qualifications of electors

- (1) At a general election held on a particular day, a person is entitled to vote if:
 - (a) on that day, the person's name is on the Roll of the electors of the Territory for the purposes of general elections; and
 - (b) the person would be entitled to vote at an election held on that day to choose a member of the House of Representatives for the Territory.
- (2) A person's name is taken not to be on the Roll for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) if an electoral enactment so provides.

- (3) This section does not prevent an electoral enactment from providing that other persons, in addition to persons entitled under subsection (1), be entitled to vote at a general election.

67D Territory electorates

- (1) In this section:

quota, in relation to an electorate for the Territory, means the number calculated in accordance with the formula:

where:

Number of Territory electors means the number of electors of the Territory.

Number of electorate members means the number of members to be elected by the electorate.

Number of Territory members means the number of members of the Assembly.

- (2) A distribution or redistribution of the Territory into electorates is not to result in any electorate having, immediately after the distribution or redistribution:
- (a) a number of electors of the Territory greater than 110% of its quota; or
 - (b) a number of electors of the Territory less than 90% of its quota.

Part IX—Miscellaneous

69A Acts that bind States to bind Territory

- (1) If an Act (whether or not by express provision) binds each of the States, or the Crown in right of each of the States, that Act binds the Territory, or the Crown in right of the Territory, by force of this subsection, unless that Act specifically provides otherwise.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the application of a law of the Commonwealth in and in relation to the Territory otherwise than as provided in that subsection.

69 Trade and commerce to be free

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), trade, commerce and intercourse between the Territory and a State, and between the Territory and the Northern Territory, the Jervis Bay Territory, the Territory of Christmas Island or the Territory of Cocos (Keeling) Islands, shall be absolutely free.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not bind the Commonwealth.

70 Validity of certain actions

- (1) In subsection (2):
office means the office of Chief Minister, Deputy Chief Minister, Minister, Presiding Officer, Deputy Presiding Officer or Commissioner.
- (2) Anything done by or in relation to a person who has been elected or appointed to an office, or a person purporting to act in an office, under this Act is not invalid on the ground that:
 - (a) the occasion for the election or appointment had not arisen;
 - (b) there was a defect or irregularity in connection with the election or appointment;
 - (c) the election or appointment had ceased to have effect; or
 - (d) the occasion for the person to act had not arisen or had ceased.
- (3) Anything done by or in relation to a person who has purported to sit or vote as a member at a meeting of the Assembly or of a committee is not invalid on the ground that the person:
 - (a) was not duly elected or chosen; or
 - (b) had vacated office as a member.

73 Remuneration and allowances

- (1) In this section:
office means any of the following offices:
 - (a) Chief Minister;
 - (b) Deputy Chief Minister;
 - (c) Minister;
 - (d) member;
 - (e) Presiding Officer;
 - (f) Deputy Presiding Officer;

- (fa) Chief Justice of the Supreme Court;
 - (fb) Judge of the Supreme Court;
 - (fc) Master of the Supreme Court;
 - (fd) Chief Magistrate;
 - (fe) Magistrate;
 - (g) an office declared by an enactment to be an office to which this section applies.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3A) of this section and subsection 29A(2) of the A.C.T. Self-Government (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988, a person is, in respect of services in an office, to be paid such remuneration and allowances:
- (a) if they are determined or specified by or under an enactment—as so determined or specified; or
 - (b) in any other case—as are determined by the Remuneration Tribunal.
- (3A) The remuneration and allowances of a person holding an office specified in paragraph (1)(fa), (fb), (fc), (fd) or (fe) are not to be diminished while the person holds that office.
- (4) Where:
- (a) the term of office of a person as member ends on the polling day for a general election; and
 - (b) the person is re-elected at that general election;
- then, for the purposes of this section, the person shall be taken to have continued to serve in the office of member until the day on which the election of the person is declared.
- (5) Where:
- (a) the term of office of a person as member ends because the Assembly is dissolved under section 16; and
 - (b) the person is a candidate at the next general election;
- then, for the purposes of this section, the person shall be taken to have continued to serve in the office of member until the polling day for that general election or, if the person is re-elected, until the day on which the election of the person is declared.

74 Regulations

The Governor-General may make regulations:

- (a) prescribing matters:
 - (i) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
 - (ii) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act; and
- (b) adding further matters to Schedule 4.

Schedule 1

Section 9

Table AApplication, saving or transitional provisions

Education Legislation Amendment Act 1997 (No. 66, 1997)

Schedule 119 Purpose of this Part

This Part sets out transitional provisions relating to the transfer of the responsibility for the University of Canberra from the Commonwealth to the Australian Capital Territory.

20 Definitions

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

ACT enactment means an enactment as defined by section 3 of the Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988.

transfer day means the day on which Part 1 of this Schedule commences.

University means the University of Canberra established by section 4 of the University Act.

University Act means the University of Canberra Act 1989 as in force from time to time before the transfer day.

21 Terms and conditions of employment of University employees

If a person was employed by the University immediately before the transfer day, this Act does not affect the terms and conditions (including any accrued entitlement to benefits) of that employment.

22 Audit

If the transfer day is less than a year after the end of the last period in respect of which a report was made by the Auditor-General under subsection 37(4) of the University Act, that subsection has effect in respect of the period (the final reporting period) beginning immediately after the end of that last period and ending immediately before the transfer day as if the reference to a year in that subsection were a reference to the final reporting period.

23 Annual report and financial statements

If the transfer day is less than a year after the end of the last year in respect of which a report was prepared under section 39 of the University Act, that section has effect in respect of the period beginning immediately after the end of that last year and ending immediately before the transfer day as if:

- (a) a reference in that section to a year were a reference to that period; and
- (b) a reference in that section to 31 December were a reference to the transfer day.

Legislative Instruments (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2003 (No. 140, 2003)

4 Transitional provisions

- (1) If legislation introduced into the Parliament before the commencing day but commencing on or after that day:

- (a) authorises an instrument to be made in the exercise of a power delegated by the Parliament; and
- (b) is expressed to require that instrument to be published as a statutory rule under the Statutory Rules Publication Act 1903;
- any instrument so made is taken to be an instrument referred to in paragraph 6(b) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 despite the repeal by this Act of the Statutory Rules Publication Act 1903.
- (2) If legislation introduced into the Parliament before the commencing day but commencing on or after that day:
- (a) authorises an instrument to be made in the exercise of a power delegated by the Parliament; and
- (b) is expressed to declare that instrument to be a disallowable instrument for the purposes of section 46A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901;
- any instrument so made is taken to be an instrument referred to in subparagraph 6(d)(i) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 despite the repeal by this Act of section 46A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.
- (3) If legislation that is in force immediately before the commencing day or that is introduced into the Parliament before that day but that commences on or after that day:
- (a) authorised or authorises an instrument to be made in the exercise of a power delegated by the Parliament that adversely affects the rights of a person, or results in the imposition of liabilities on a person; and
- (b) provided or provides that the instrument has effect, to the extent that it adversely affects those rights or results in the imposition of those liabilities, despite subsection 48(2) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, before the date of its notification in the Gazette;
- that legislation is to be construed, on and after the commencing day or the day of its commencement, whichever last occurs, as if it had provided instead that the instrument, to the extent that it adversely affects those rights or results in the imposition of those liabilities, has effect, despite subsection 12(2) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003, before its registration under that Act.
- (4) If:
- (a) legislation (the enabling legislation) in force immediately before the commencing day:
- (i) authorises the making of an instrument; and
- (ii) does not declare such an instrument to be a disallowable instrument for the purposes of section 46A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 but nonetheless makes provision for its disallowance by the application, with or without modification, of the provisions of Part XII of that Act; and
- (b) an instrument is made in the exercise of that authority on or after the commencing day; and
- (c) the instrument is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 or otherwise;
- the enabling legislation has effect, on and after the commencing day, as if:
- (d) it had declared such instruments to be disallowable instruments for the purposes of section 46B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901; and
- (e) it had provided for such modifications of the operation of that section as are necessary to ensure that the effect of the applied provisions of Part XII of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 is preserved.
- (5) In this section:

commencing day means the commencing day within the meaning of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.
