Subject: Inquiry into billboards

I am writing on behalf of myself, wife and married son to say that an important reason why we have remained and are intending to remain in Canberra is its difference from many other cities with their distracting, ugly hoardings.

We strongly urge you recommend against allowing the introduction of advertising billboards in Canberra. We believe any monetary gain from this would be overwhelmingly offset by loss of amenity particularly:

- by its destroying Canberra's garden city reputation and the loss of attractiveness for its residents.
- its detrimental effect on Canberra's attractiveness for visitors and resultant effect on tourism

With thanks
