Although I do not have a life-threatening illness, I know people who have, and I want to express my support for people who need it, to have access to assisted dying. What is the point of prolonging suffering? As a woman in my 70s, I can see there might be a time when I would want to be able to make my own choice about whether I really want to continue with life.

I was very disappointed when the NSW Parliament did not pass the bill, But heartened by the Victorian result. Please show similar leadership in the ACT and give people the choice how they run their lives.

Thanking you
