Dear Sir / Madam

If euthanasia legislation were passed it would place pressure on people who are in my position. As a single, eighty year old, self funded retiree, living alone, in her own house in an inner suburb. Some would be pressured by relatives + others feeling that their lives were useless and a burden on society.

Suicide, at times, results from lack of awareness of palliative care. As well as the trauma to "the victim" it causes enormous sense of guilt + "if only" to survivors.
