To whomever it may concern,

My name is Jack Qian, a resident of Gungahlin residing in [REDACTED]. I would like future land sales and development to focus on employment, amenities and retail, rather than more accommodation.

Currently Gungahlin is not fit for purpose, more employment opportunities is needed here. As the main centre in the North, it is very underwhelming on the aforementioned fronts.

Please do not sell the strategically important pieces of land for short term gain, please plan for the long term.

Cheers
Jack
