ELC Staffing – Brindabella Christina College

As of late I have been seeing alot of permanent staff leaving their jobs and I understand there is staff turnover and things change but it seems of late there is many agency staff and very few permanent staff These agency staffing sure are wonderful and hold relevant qualifications although as a parent I am seeing a decline in my childs sense of security at his childcare as he doesn't know any of the staff when they are all changing daily I have spoken to the director about this and he said it happens and kind of shrugged it off

Thanks and regards
