Submissions closing for inquiry into the fiscal sustainability of the ACT

The Select Committee on the Fiscal Sustainability of the ACT would like to remind stakeholders that the submission period will close on Thursday, 12 February 2026.

The Committee's inquiry topics are available on its webpage. They include:

- the Territory's fiscal position;
- Commonwealth funding;
- taxes levied by the ACT;
- managing the costs of government services;
- the capital works pipeline; and
- the wellbeing framework.

The Committee Chair, Ms Jo Clay, said 'The Committee looks forward to receiving the views of Canberrans on how the ACT Government is managing their economic security. We encourage all contributions.'

Information about how to make a submission is available on the Assembly website.

Public hearings are currently scheduled for 3 and 5 March 2026.
