Dear Esteemed Committee Members.

I simply wish to register my view that we should allow for End of Life Choices and Assisted Dying in the ACT. Ideally we could implement a Law which can apply uniformly throughout our Great Country, at the Federal level. Sadly I feel there is no empathy for the terminally-ill at a Federal level.

I implore the Committee to watch the film "Fade to Black" which in large part resulted in the Victorian scheme.

I do not envy you the difficult task ahead but wish you well.

Kindest Regards

Garry
