In relation to: Land Management Agreements

MR COE: So let us go to the business case of buying those farms, but that has obviously been litigated a fair bit. What about—

Mr Gentleman: But it was not just the government that made the purchases, private enterprise has made purchases too.

MR COE: Yes, well that was very much highlighted in the audit report, was not it?

Mr Gentleman: Yes.

MR COE: Yes. So with regard to all those hectares of farms that the ACT government owns, all those have got working environment management plans, do they?

Mr Gentleman: I think they do.

Dr Brady: Some of them have land management agreements on some of them.

MR COE: Yes. Do all of them?

Dr Brady: I would have to check, Mr Coe, if I could take that on notice.

MR COE: Is it a lease condition that all the farms in the ACT have a land management plan?

Mr Gentleman: They have an agreement.

Mr Ponton: Land management agreements.

MR COE: Land management agreement.

Mr Gentleman: Yes.

MR COE: So do all these farms that the ACT government now owns, have land management agreements?
