Closed as a result of	On Tuesday 8 August we had two children attend our preschool class that are still wearing nappies. It is alleged neither of the children were changed throughout the day. On arrival at home in the afternoon both families realised their child had not been changed as they were wearing the same nappy they arrived in that morning. Both Families have been spoken to by the director and informed of the follow up process We are conducting an investigation into these incidents including all educators involved.
