Please help Giralang with a local shops!

I've been a resident of Giralang for 10 years. Both my girls go to the primary school and it's such a shame to see that eye sore of a site which is supposed to be our shops.

We have a vibrant, loving community which would be so much more enriched with a coffee shop, a green grocer, community co-op, a small takeaway etc.

The sports ovals surrounding the shops are always filled with families, soccer and football teams. And between the school and the community itself, a cute little hub would get its fair share of business. Please no horrible, sterile plaza-type setup. And do we really need more units in an already congested area; especially during school drop offs and pick ups? We need life and beauty at that site, somewhere to meet and for our Giralang culture to be fostered.

Wasted time and energy writing this I'm sure but I can always hope.

Kind regards

Carly Fiumara
