To whom it may concern,

I am writing to let you know how disappointed I am with the lack of progress on the development of Giralang Shops.

I remember the convenience of having local shops in this suburb, and certainly did not expect to still be waiting for this convenience to be available again. As we take grandchildren to the local preschool and primary school I am appalled at the messy state of the site. The school has such a loving, caring reputation for its students and the environment, it seems inappropriate to have its street cred hidden by this abomination.

We have also had friends buy in Giralang on our recommendation because of its safe pathways and convenience to amenities and community spirit. This can only be enhanced by rectifying this situation.

Thank you for paying attention to these community concerns.

Patrice and John Simmons
