In relation to:

Ms Thompson: The directorates actually develop their own plans, but we are actually working closely with a couple of key directorates and the Integrity Commission to develop a model fraud and corruption prevention plan. And that will be rolled out across the service as an example of—for people to use to update across their different directorates and agencies.

THE CHAIR: Okay, so they are currently working on that, or they did work on it?

Ms Thompson: So everybody already has their plans, but we are currently working on a model plan with the input from the integrity commission about what they suggest or what they would like to see.

THE CHAIR: Okay. And when would that be ready?

Ms Thompson: I would have to take that on notice, it is currently a piece of work that we are going through and we are using a couple of key directorates to begin looking at the—what their needs are and rolling that through. And once those plans are developed, it will then inform a model plan that we can have other directorates, essentially, copy.

Andrew Barr MLA: The answer to the Member's question is as follows:—

The ACT Integrity Commission is the lead on the development of the Model Fraud and Corruption Prevention Plan. The Integrity Commission is working with the Professional Standards Unit and key ACTPS staff.

It is envisaged the Model plan will be presented to the ACT Public Sector Strategic Board for consideration by June 2023 as a template for all directorates to use to develop their Fraud and Corruption Prevention plans.
