Dear officer,

I am writing to you to object the proposal that Woolworths put up to buy the Springvale Drive car park and other public land.

As a member of the Hawker community, i don't support this proposal. With the current population in the near communities, the current shopping environment is sufficient and fit for purpose. We don't need a mega supermarket and under car park.

The current existing outdoor dinning area and children's playground is in a safe location, which forms a part of the community lifestyle. Families enjoy the relaxing environment. We don't support these to be relocated to Springvale drive.

Thanks for your attention.

Kind Regards,
Licho Wang
