New inquiry into the Government Agencies (Campaign Advertising) Amendment Bill 2025

The Standing Committee on the Integrity Commission and Statutory Office Holders has announced it will be undertaking an inquiry into the Government Agencies (Campaign Advertising) Amendment Bill 2025.

The bill seeks to clarify what constitutes a party political purpose and requirements for advertising about proposed government programs. It also introduces additional restrictions for federal election periods.

Mr Ed Cocks MLA, Committee Chair, said, ‘This bill could affect ACT Government material delivered to households across the Territory. The Committee is keen to hear views from individuals and community groups as well as political entities.’

The Terms of Reference for the inquiry are available on the inquiry webpage: link.

Information about how to make a submission is available on the Assembly website link.

Submissions close on 30 January 2026.

11 December 2025
