I am an elderly Australian citizen, formerly resident in ACT, now living in Hong Kong.

Please do not recommend the introduction of any type of euthanasia.
Once the 'Do not Kill' ban is breached, the slope becomes slippery.
The incoherent mutterings of an sick old person can be interpreted as the medical staff or relatives find convenient.

If the ACT introduces euthanasia, however 'well-guarded',
I would avoid going back there again.
