Hello Danton,

I would like to provide a clarification to the information I provided the Inquiry on May 18.

I gave another example of a type of restrictive practice which had occurred in a school environment, as provided by a parent of a child with disability to AFI, with the example of a student being placed in a trampoline. I want to clarify that this specific example occurred interstate, not within the ACT.

Thank you,

Stacy Rheese

AFI acknowledges and pays respect to the Traditional Custodians of the lands across Australia on which our members live and work, and to their Elders, past, present and future. We pay respect to the Ngunnawal people as the Traditional Custodians of the land on which AFI's office stands.

We pay our respects to those amongst the lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, and intersex communities who have worked to support the improved health and wellbeing of their peers, children, families, friends, and country. We honour the elders in the diverse communities of which we are a part, and we celebrate the extraordinary diversity of people's bodies, genders, sexualities and relationships that they represent.
