Hi,

My name is Maryquinette Nduka and I would like to oppose this amendment, breaches of human rights must not be private.

If conciliation failed in the Commission, it must return back to the Supreme Court rather than to the ACAT (Tribunal).

Taking conciliation to the ACAT means that justice will not prevail and unfortunately this will not help to curb discrimination and abuse.

I strongly oppose this amendment looking, I have the interest of mine and future generations who this amendment will affect.

Thank you.
