

Ginninderra Falls

Canberra's Kakadu

Ginninderra Falls

Canberra's Kakadu

The Murrumbidgee River

One of Australia's largest rivers flowing around the outskirts of Canberra provides canoeing and swimming, with sandy beaches, fish, bird life and scenic river views.

Rainbow bush walk trail

A 90 minute intriguing walk down the side of the Ginninderra cavern to the Murrumbidgee River past the picturesque lower river falls and thence along the green grassy banks, walking back to the parking area with its tower lookout.

- SEASONAL CANOE HIRE AND ABSEILING •
- Picnic and barbecue facilities • Kiosk •

Admission fee applies

Summer 10 – 8pm

Winter 10 – 5pm

This unique natural Australian bushland park on the banks of the Murrumbidgee River, which flows around the outskirts of Canberra, includes fauna and flora, and birdlife in its natural state. The park is home to the well known Ginninderra Falls, with its 137 foot waterfalls able to be viewed from many vantage points within the park.

Exhibit 6 : Ginninderra Falls – Canberra's Kakadu - no date, a brochure that Mrs Hyles and Mr John Hyles used to promote their property when it was open to the public as Ginninderra Falls Park.