

I wish to lodge a submission relating to the variation to the Territory Plan D343. I do not agree with the proposal to reduce the block size required for subdivision. This will irreversibly alter the existing amenity of suburbs affected by Mr Fluffy homes present among them.

I believe that the proposal is internally flawed in that it will be impossible to carry out subdivision of blocks while maintaining the amenity of neighbouring residences. The two things are mutually exclusive.

David John Evans.