Hi,
My son use to go to blinky bill childcare centre and I've been very disappointed on how my son has been treated on many occasions my son was sent home because of a temperature he didn't have, he was sent home in a poo nappy I literally changed it right outside the centre because he refused to change it, yesterday he came home really hungry which was weird because I turned up right after afternoon tea and they said he ate it all while I find to be a lie as he came home and ate half a bag of grapes, a thing of blueberries and 4 Strawberries that to me says he hasn't eaten, I'm very upset with how the nursery stuff has treated him and there needs to be something done about it after someone needs up in hospital or worse
