Dear Committee of Planning and Urban Renewal,

I would like to add my voice to the many others from the ACT community against any changes to billboard advertising regulations in the territory.

I feel, as the national capital, Canberra needs to have a very different look from the rest of the cities of Australia. Keeping the city commercial free and free from the awful visual pollution that billboards represent is a major contribution to the dignity and special character of Canberra.

As a resident I appreciate being able to enjoy a beautiful natural and built environment that is not compromised by commercial interests. I believe our national capital needs to maintain its' special qualities.

I would urge the committee to maintain the current regulations and not to give in to commercial pressures.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Karen James
