Dear Select Committee

I am in favour of legislation for Voluntary Assisted Dying.

I am 81 years old and have twice witnessed unendurable suffering which continued after the allowable palliative medication had been professionally administered.

The trauma of such experience is not forgotten.

For my own sake and others who wish to have the end of life choice I would like to know that I could be voluntarily euthanised if the pain and suffering became intolerable.

Sincerely

Elizabeth Dawn Coghill
