To whom it may concern,

I am not in agreement with the government selling the car park and other public land at Hawker shops to Woolworths. The proposed changes to the area would not suit my elderly parents who find the Hawker Shops a very convenient place to do their everyday shopping. The car parks in the area are easy to manoeuvre into and they don't have to use any stairs or escalators to get to the shops. Please don't change our beautiful Hawker shops into something that is not wanted or required by the residents.

Your sincerely

Diane Orr
