Dear Ms [REDACTED]

PROHIBITION NOTICE

This Prohibition Notice (the Notice) is issued to you pursuant to section 182 of the Education and Care Services National Law (ACT) Act (the Law) and takes effect from the date of this Notice.

The grounds for issuing this Notice are outlined in the decision enclosed with this Notice.

Effect of this Prohibition Notice

While the notice is in force you are prohibited from doing the following:

- a) providing education and care to children for an education and care service;
- b) being engaged as an educator, family day care educator, employee, contractor or staff member of, or being a volunteer at, an education and care service; or
- c) carrying out any other activity relating to an education and care service.

The penalty for contravening a prohibition notice is set out in section 187 of the Law as $22,900. A penalty also applies to an approved provider who engages a person to whom a prohibition notice applies.

Cancellation of Prohibition Notice

Under section 186 of the Law, you may apply to the Regulatory Authority to have the Notice cancelled at any time. Any such application must:

- a) be in writing;
- b) include any information prescribed under the Education and Care Services National Regulations (information currently prescribed is your name, contact details including address for service, and a statement setting out the grounds for the application to cancel the notice); and
- c) be signed by you.

Please note that it is an offence under the Law to provide me with false or misleading information or documents.

Should you wish to make such an application for cancellation please forward to:

The Senior Director
Children's Education and Care Assurance
Early Childhood Policy and Regulation
ACT Education Directorate
PO Box 158, Canberra ACT 2601.

Should you have any questions about this Prohibition Notice please contact Authorised Officer, Nicole Withers, via email at nicole.withers@act.gov.au.

Yours sincerely,

Jo Williams
