Dear Mr Taylor

Could you please confirm that the email below is the document you wish for me to forward to the Public Accounts Committee inquiry

If this is not the case or you have additional material I would be happy to forward it for you.

Unfortunately I have only until COB today to do this.

Regards

Neil Hermes

Dear Jeremy, Leader of The Opposition

Reference to:

I have been going through our out of pocket expenses and loss of income since this Mr Fluffy saga raised its ugly Head.

The tenant in Unit 1, left the property on the 17 July. The out of pocket cost in rent to 22 Sept, $2903-00.

The tenant in Unit 2, left the property on the 19 July. The out of pocket cost in rent to 22 Sept, $2407-00.

ACTEWAGL still wants their fees for water, even though all is turned off. Fee $198-00.

ACT Revenue Office want their rates, though there is no one living there. Rates fee $512-23.

" " " want their land tax. Due to the property being under a company name, they will not wipe the fee. Land Tax Fee, $904-55.

The above numbers my wife and I are out of pocket and wish to put our claim into the ACT Government for $6924-78 as to the 22 Sept, 2014.

We are self funded retirees and require these rents to pay our outgoing expenses and live.

We will look forward to an ACT Government cheque in the mail and hope can resolve this Mr Fluffy saga sooner than later.

Yours Sincerely,
Taylor
