

Dear Standing Committee on Planning and Urban Renewal,

As a relatively new resident I am strongly opposed to any expansion of billboard advertising in the ACT. We have something truly unique in Canberra, and it would be all too easy to ruin it through greed. The visual beauty of the Bush Capital would not be enhanced by the addition of billboards; a form of advertising that by definition must be eye-catching and distracting. Eucalypts and erectile dysfunction advertisements do not complement one another. We already live in a society drenched by advertising. I see no need to add to this. I urge the Inquiry to recommend no changes to the current regime.

Kind regards,

Daniel May
