End of Life Choices in the ACT

I am a member of Exit International (ACT Chapter) and strongly endorse choice in end of life decision making and the right of all people to have the option of voluntary euthanasia. Victorians have legislated for voluntary assisted dying, and it is absurd that the ACT cannot do likewise (because of an Australian Government ban on the ACT doing so). I urge the ACT Government to do what is necessary to ensure voluntary euthanasia is a legal option in the ACT. With sincerity, Lola Bootle.
