MEDIA RELEASE

New inquiry into Territory Coat of Arms

Following the adoption of the Southern Brush-tailed Rock-wallaby as the mammal emblem for the ACT, the Legislative Assembly will now turn its attention to a possible ACT Coat of Arms.

On 29 November 2018 the Assembly asked the Standing Committee on Environment and Transport and City Services to hold an inquiry into a Territory Coat of Arms.

The Committee will consult with the community during the inquiry, and provide guidance early in 2019 on how people can participate in the discussion.

For further information, or to make a submission, please contact the Committee Secretary on (02) 6205 0129 or by email at: LACommitteeETCS@parliament.act.gov.au.
