Good morning,

I am writing to express my frustration with the lack of action at the site for the Giralang shops. I am unsure whether this is on the behalf of the government or the developer, or a combined effort. The site itself is an eyesore and Giralang deserves better than a construction site that has been around for more than a decade.

What is going to be done to progress the development? I hope this inquiry will result in positive action.

Thank you for your time and consideration,
Jane Harms
