Dear Panel members,

I am Vijay Dubey and I am a long term Canberra resident.

My experience of driving in the city area has drastically changed due to the Northbourne av 60km/h zones converted to 40 km/h zone. I am not alone, many Canberrans think the same.

I think the changes are flawed and take the wrong advantage of the driver's basic instinct for driving at a two-lane broad road with no school zone and no significant intersections.

1. The Previous zoning was done correctly and there is no need for a change. Please return the zoning back to 60.
2. It's a money-making strategy and should not be encouraged. Please replace all the fines with a warning.

Please look into the law and the reasons for these changes. Then make a sensible decision which is good for our community.

Regards

Vijay Dubey
