Further Details of the Incident	P01 s mom (P01) messaged one of the preschool educator on Thursday night at 8:40pm that P01 is unable to do wee, in pain, distressed, and found blood upon wiping the child's vagina. The educator straight away called the director (P01) and informed her about the incident. When P01 came to work on Friday morning, she called the parents to which she was informed that they are still waiting for the doctor to check the child. Later after the check up, P01 (mom) sent an email stating, "on Tuesday (or wednesday, I cant remember) that she and her friend were playing in the cubby house. P01 explained that the child pulled her shirt up and her pants and undies down in the cubby house. P01 explained that the child then used a thin stick and "punch" it into her vagina. She was okay until last night she was crying in pain that she was unable to pass urine. She kept saying that the her private part is "ouchie" and relating her pain to the stick. She was in distressed and we brought her for a check up today. she finally passed her urine at 11.00 am today."
