 - (2) When were the scholarships announced;
 - (3) What advertising of the scholarships has been undertaken to date;
 - (4) Which educational institution and study programs are covered by the scholarships;
 - (5) What progress has been achieved in awarding the scholarships and what stage of study has been achieved by any recipients;
 - (6) When was the funding provided to this program;
 - (7) Under what budget initiative or appropriation authority was this initiative funded;
 - (8) Is funding for the scholarships a once off or an ongoing program; if it is ongoing, what level of funding has been committed.
- *1464 MR SMYTH: To ask the Minister for Health –
- (1) Further to a press release dated 29 March 2004 in which the Minister claimed that the Government had increased mental health funding by $3.4 million in the last two budgets, what are the new initiatives or other spending increases that make up this claimed figure of $3.4 million
 - (2) To which budget does each change relate.
- *1465 MRS BURKE: To ask the Minister for Health – Please detail the laws governing the regulation of ear piercing in the A.C.T. with regard to (a) chemists, (b) jewelry stores and (c) any other outlet providing such a service, in particular with respect to young people under the age of 16.
- *1466 MR PRATT: To ask the Minister for Education, Youth and Family Services –
- (1) Is the Minister aware of a program which has been endorsed by the Australian Institute of Mathematics called computer tutor;
 - (2) Do any A.C.T. government schools use the mathematics computer tutor;

- (3) If so, which schools currently utilise this program and how many students would this equate to; if not, would the Minister encourage schools to allow the computer tutor to be used in A.C.T. government schools given that it closely follows the Education Department's school curriculum in each State.

*1467 MR PRATT: To ask the Minister for Education, Youth and Family Services –

- (1) In the (a) 2003, (b) 2002 and (c) 2001 calendar years, how many A.C.T. government school students were (i) suspended and (ii) expelled;
- (2) How many A.C.T. government school students have been (a) suspended and (b) expelled to date in 2004;
- (3) What are some of the reasons that students are (a) suspended and (b) expelled;
- (4) What guidelines or rules are followed by teachers and principals in making a decision to (a) suspend and (b) expel a student;
- (5) When a student is suspended or expelled is there a requirement of the Department to ensure that student returns to some form of education when they have not reached the age of 16;
- (6) Have these guidelines been changed or reviewed in recent times;
- (7) Is there a need to review or change the guidelines;
- (8) What is being done in Government schools to avoid suspending or expelling a school student and ensuring they achieve good educational outcomes.

*1468 MR PRATT: To ask the Minister for Education, Youth and Family Services –

- (1) Is the Minister aware of a new report titled the Case for Change – a review of contemporary research on indigenous education outcomes;
- (2) Was the Minister aware of this report before this question was asked;
- (3) Does the A.C.T. need to change implemented policy and practice to improve indigenous educational outcomes;
- (4) If so, what is the A.C.T. Government and A.C.T. Department of Education, Youth and Family Services doing to change (a) policy and (b) practice to improve indigenous educational outcomes for the A.C.T.'s indigenous students;
- (5) If not, how will the Minister and the Department ensure that indigenous education results improve now and in the future.

*1469 MR PRATT: To ask the Minister for Education, Youth and Family Services –

- (1) Further to figures that have been revealed showing around one million Australian children have paid tutors, does the Government have any data that reveals how many A.C.T. students receive paid tutoring;
- (2) As tutoring is often a form of assistance that parents feel they cannot provide, what is the Government doing to assist parents in the difficulties they have with helping their children do homework;

- (3) Does the A.C.T. Government do enough to assist parents in their approach to helping their children with homework; if not, what sort of additional assistance could be provided and would the Government be willing to provide it.

*1470 MR CORNWELL: To ask the Treasurer –

- (1) In relation to the offer of funding from the Commonwealth Government to States and Territories to extend pension benefits to low-income self funded retirees and further to the Treasurer's comment in The Canberra Times, 29 March 2004, page 5, that the A.C.T. Government was more interested in extending concessions to pensioners and those who really need it, what is his definition of those who really need it and which groups of those in need fall within this definition;
- (2) Do low-income self-funded retirees also fall within this definition of those who really need it; if not, why not.

*1471 MR CORNWELL: To ask the Minister for Disability, Housing and Community Services –

- (1) Further to Question on notice No 1288 regarding the leasing of private rental properties by A.C.T. Housing for the placement of public housing tenants and that the owners of the private properties leased to the A.C.T. Government do not have any say over tenant selection, yet the tenant/s are responsible for payment of any property damage, then how can the owners be assured that (a) for any property damage that occurs they will be properly recompensed and (b) the tenant/s that have been given residence in their property are, in fact, responsible tenant/s and will be in a position to be able to provide payment for any property damage;
- (2) If the tenant/s are not required to pay a bond, and if, having vacated or abandoned the property leased from the private owner by A.C.T. Housing there is significant damage to that property, what funds have been set aside by the A.C.T. Government to ensure the property is returned to the owner in its original condition, or that the property owner is duly compensated.

*1472 MR CORNWELL: To ask the Minister for Health –

- (1) Further to Question on notice No 1298 part (6) and the response that an estimate of the total number of people on waiting lists for private aged care facilities cannot be provided, how can the A.C.T. Government make plans to solve the current problems in aged care accommodation, and thus help to reduce lengthy waiting lists for nursing homes in the A.C.T, if it is unaware of the numbers, or at least a close estimate, of people on such waiting lists;
- (2) If an estimate has been determined, could that figure be provided;
- (3) If an estimate of people on such waiting lists has not been determined, why not.

*1473 MR CORNWELL: To ask the Minister for Planning –

- (1) Further to the Minister's letter of 5 June 2003 regarding action against the lessees of 14 Yambina Street Waramanga for failure to complete building work on site since at least 1995, why has Planning and Land Management, its predecessors and successors allowed this matter to drag on for at least nine years;
- (2) Does the A.C.T. have laws limiting the amount of time a lessee has to complete building work; if so, what is this time limit and why has it not been enforced in this case;
- (3) In the Minister's letter which concludes by saying that the matter will be resolved after the AAT makes a decision, can he advise if a decision has been made and if so, what is that decision;
- (4) If the AAT has not yet made a decision, why not;
- (5) Do neighbours have any legal recourse for lower property values living next to this building site;
- (6) Can the A.C.T. Government take action against the lessees under the so called dirty block legislation; if so, will such action be taken; if not, why not.

*1474 MR CORNWELL: To ask the Minister for Planning –

- (1) Further to your response to Question on notice No 1295 regarding the bus concessions review to extend pensioner off-peak tickets to peak periods and the assurance that the outcome of this review would be made available to Members of this Assembly, why has the Government not yet considered the review, given the review was completed in November 2003 as indicated in answer to Question on notice No 1172.
- (2) By what date will the outcome of this review be made available to members of this Assembly, given the review was completed in November 2003.

*1475 MR CORNWELL: To ask the Chief Minister – In relation to advice from the recently appointed Case Manager for older person's accommodation at the Council on the Ageing (COTA) meeting on 16 February 2004 that a report was to be out at the end of that month to say what had been done and what would be done in the future regarding the situation with aged care and aged care accommodation in the A.C.T and that copies of this report would be available, could a copy of this report be provided to Members of this Assembly; if not, why not.

*1476 MR CORNWELL: To ask the Chief Minister – Further to his response to Question on notice No 1306 providing details of the Senior Executive Working Group (SEWG), if the SEWG's primary task is to oversee the implementation of the Building for Our Ageing Community strategy, then how can it be said that they have no impact on the endorsement or planning of future land releases for aged care facilities in the A.C.T.

*1477 MR STEFANIAK: To ask the Attorney-General –

- (1) In relation to victims of crime, what is the role of the Victims Assistance Board (VAB);
- (2) Has the VAB seen any victims and, if so, how many during the period 1 January 2003 to the 31 March 2004;
- (3) Please list any benefits the VAB has brought in terms of assistance to victims since its inception;
- (4) Why does the VAB get more money annually than the Victims of Crime Assistance League (VCAL);
- (5) Has the VAB ever contacted the VCAL; if not, why not;

*1478 MR STEFANIAK: To ask the Attorney-General –

- (1) Is it true that the Victims of Crime Coordinator (VCC) has taken over a room at the court previously occupied by the Victims of Crime Assistance League (VCAL); if so, why was this done;
- (2) What provisions have been made for the members of the VCAL to use that room or have another room of their own allocated to them at court so that they can assist victims going through the court process;
- (3) Will the Department ensure that the VCAL has complete unfettered access to the room at court now occupied by VCC or alternatively ensure another room at court is available for them to use.

*1479 MR STEFANIAK: To ask the Attorney-General –

- (1) Further to his media release reported on 25 March 2004 on ABC radio news in relation to his visit to the United Kingdom and discussions he had with persons in relation to the A.C.T. Bill of Rights, now enacted as the Human Rights Act 2004 and the reference to Professor Francesca Klug being involved in the consultation on the A.C.T. Bill of Rights, was any other non-resident of the A.C.T. consulted on the A.C.T. Bill of Rights; if so, please list those persons and the capacity in which they were consulted;
- (2) On what basis was Professor Klug consulted;
- (3) Was Professor Klug, or any other non-resident of the A.C.T., paid for any services they rendered during the consultation; if so, how much;
- (4) If there was any paid consultation was there a tender process;
- (5) If so, please give details.
