Statutory Declarations and Liability

A Statutory Declaration must be completed if you were not the driver of the vehicle at the time of the offence, or the infringement notice is served on a corporation. The person or corporation on whom the notice is served remains liable for the offence until a Statutory Declaration is processed and a new infringement is issued.

For corporations: If an infringement notice is served on a corporation, an executive officer or person involved in the management of the corporation, must complete the declaration. A corporate penalty, which is significantly larger than that for an individual, applies if the driver cannot be identified. If an individual is nominated on the declaration as the driver at the time of the offence, this infringement notice will be withdrawn and a new infringement notice will be issued and served on the individual.

On the declaration you should provide facts about the use of the vehicle at the time of the offence and attach any supporting information. If you are unable to ascertain the name and address of the driver, you must provide full details of the circumstances and all action taken by you to identify the driver.

DO NOT PAY THIS NOTICE IF A STATUTORY DECLARATION IS TO BE PROCESSED. The demerit points as stated on the infringement notice will be incurred by you if you pay the infringement notice penalty. Further demerit points are incurred if you are convicted or found guilty of the offence.

You must complete and return the Statutory Declaration provided with this notice to the Chief Police Officer, PO Box 582, Dickson ACT 2602, (email) trafficcameraoffice@act.gov.au, (fax) 02 6207 7287, (ph) 02 6207 7182, within 28 days after the date of service of this notice.

In a prosecution against you for the offence, the Court must not find you liable for the offence, if it is satisfied that the vehicle was being used, at the time of the offence, in accordance with the information supplied by you.

Extension of Time to Pay Penalty

If you wish to apply for extra time to pay the penalty, you must write to the Chief Police Officer, PO Box 582, Dickson ACT 2602, (email) trafficcameraoffice@act.gov.au, (fax) 02 6207 7287, (ph) 02 6207 7182. The Chief Police Officer will write to you about the outcome of your request, and if your request is refused, the reasons for that decision. If your request is refused, the penalty must be paid within 7 days after the day you are told of the refusal, or 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice, whichever is later.

Dispute Liability or Apply for Withdrawal

If you wish to dispute liability or apply for withdrawal of the infringement notice you must write to the Chief Police Officer, GPO Box 2208, Canberra ACT 2601, (fax) 02 6245 7419, (email) infringements@afp.gov.au, within 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice, or any longer time allowed by the Chief Police Officer. The notice must state that you either dispute liability or apply for withdrawal and set out the grounds on which you rely. THE CHIEF POLICE OFFICER MAY REFER A DISPUTE TO THE MAGISTRATES COURT. If the matter goes to Court, and the Court finds against you, you may be convicted and ordered to pay a penalty and costs, and be subject to other Court orders.

Extension of Time to Dispute Liability

If you wish to apply for extra time to dispute liability for the offence, you must write to the Chief Police Officer, GPO Box 2208, Canberra ACT 2601, (fax) 02 6245 7419, (email) infringements@afp.gov.au, requesting a stated longer period of time, within 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice. The Chief Police Officer will write to you about the outcome of your request, and if your request is refused, the reasons for that decision. If your request is refused, you must pay the penalty or dispute liability within 7 days after the day you are told of the refusal, or 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice, whichever is later.

Traffic Infringement

The Secretariat has recently received an infringement notice in respect of vehicle registration no. _____ which, as of the date of the offence, was the Assembly vehicle issued to you.

Accordingly, the Secretariat has now provided a statutory declaration to the relevant traffic authority identifying that you were responsible for the vehicle at the time of the infringement.

For your information and further reference, a copy of the infringement notice and a copy of the statutory declaration are attached.

The relevant traffic authority will now proceed to re-issue the infringement notice in your name, with an adjustment to the penalty from the "corporation rate" to the "individual rate" and, at that point, you will be provided with the usual option of either paying the infringement, disputing liability or providing your own statutory declaration naming another person who was responsible for the vehicle at the time of the offence.

Any inquiries regarding these new procedures should, in the first instance, be discussed with:

Yours sincerely,

Corporate Services

Statutory Declarations and Liability

A Statutory Declaration must be completed if you were not the driver of the vehicle at the time of the offence, or the infringement notice is served on a corporation. The person or corporation on whom the notice is served remains liable for the offence until a Statutory Declaration is processed and a new infringement is issued.

For corporations: If an infringement notice is served on a corporation, an executive officer or person involved in the management of the corporation, must complete the declaration. A corporate penalty, which is significantly larger than that for an individual, applies if the driver cannot be identified. If an individual is nominated on the declaration as the driver at the time of the offence, this infringement notice will be withdrawn and a new infringement notice will be issued and served on the individual.

On the declaration you should provide facts about the use of the vehicle at the time of the offence and attach any supporting information. If you are unable to ascertain the name and address of the driver, you must provide full details of the circumstances and all action taken by you to identify the driver.

DO NOT PAY THIS NOTICE IF A STATUTORY DECLARATION IS TO BE PROCESSED. The demerit points as stated on the infringement notice will be incurred by you if you pay the infringement notice penalty. Further demerit points are incurred if you are convicted or found guilty of the offence.

You must complete and return the Statutory Declaration provided with this notice to the Chief Police Officer, PO Box 582, Dickson ACT 2602, (email) trafficcameraoffice@act.gov.au, (fax) 02 6207 7287, (ph) 02 6207 7182, within 28 days after the date of service of this notice.

In a prosecution against you for the offence, the Court must not find you liable for the offence, if it is satisfied that the vehicle was being used, at the time of the offence, in accordance with the information supplied by you.

Extension of Time to Pay Penalty

If you wish to apply for extra time to pay the penalty, you must write to the Chief Police Officer, PO Box 582, Dickson ACT 2602, (email) trafficcameraoffice@act.gov.au, (fax) 02 6207 7287, (ph) 02 6207 7182. The Chief Police Officer will write to you about the outcome of your request, and if your request is refused, the reasons for that decision. If your request is refused, the penalty must be paid within 7 days after the day you are told of the refusal, or 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice, whichever is later.

Dispute Liability or Apply for Withdrawal

If you wish to dispute liability or apply for withdrawal of the infringement notice you must write to the Chief Police Officer, GPO Box 2208, Canberra ACT 2601, (fax) 02 6245 7419, (email) infringements@afp.gov.au, within 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice, or any longer time allowed by the Chief Police Officer. The notice must state that you either dispute liability or apply for withdrawal and set out the grounds on which you rely. THE CHIEF POLICE OFFICER MAY REFER A DISPUTE TO THE MAGISTRATES COURT. If the matter goes to Court, and the Court finds against you, you may be convicted and ordered to pay a penalty and costs, and be subject to other Court orders.

Extension of Time to Dispute Liability

If you wish to apply for extra time to dispute liability for the offence, you must write to the Chief Police Officer, GPO Box 2208, Canberra ACT 2601, (fax) 02 6245 7419, (email) infringements@afp.gov.au, requesting a stated longer period of time, within 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice. The Chief Police Officer will write to you about the outcome of your request, and if your request is refused, the reasons for that decision. If your request is refused, you must pay the penalty or dispute liability within 7 days after the day you are told of the refusal, or 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice, whichever is later.

Parking Offence – Reminder Notice

The Secretariat has recently received a parking offence reminder notice in respect of vehicle registration no. [redacted] which, as of the date of the offence, was the Assembly vehicle issued to you.

Accordingly, the Secretariat has now provided a statutory declaration to the relevant traffic authority identifying that you were responsible for the vehicle at the time of the infringement.

For your information and further reference, a copy of the parking offence reminder notice and a copy of the statutory declaration is attached.

The relevant traffic authority will now proceed to re-issue the infringement notice in your name, with an adjustment to the penalty from the "corporation rate" to the "individual rate" and, at that point, you will be provided with the usual option of either paying the infringement, disputing liability or providing your own statutory declaration naming another person who was responsible for the vehicle at the time of the offence.

Any inquiries regarding these new procedures should, in the first instance, be discussed with [redacted] or myself.

Yours sincerely
