Good afternoon,

I am writing to show my support for an inquiry into the Giralang Shops site and the potential for improvements in that space.

I recently moved to Giralang, and believe the suburb is beautiful, has great people and a lot of potential. The only thing missing is a central hub where people can meet, form community connections, and where an identity for the suburb can be created.

I know of several neighbours who have limited transportation options, and having a shops in walking distance to their homes would positively impact on their lives.

In addition, the current site is an eyesore and a danger to those who walk, go to school, or play nearby. It has been sitting there derelict for far too long.

Any inquiry and movement on this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Regards,
Elly Mackay
