Dear Sir/Madam,

Due to my typo in original email addressed to you, I am now resending my comments re Hawker Woolworths proposed carpark purchase, hopefully to the correct address this time.

Sincerely,

Jan Bsher

Subject: Woolworths Proposal at Hawker Shops

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am a long term Hawker resident, and am disgusted to see the Woolworths Springvale Drive car park 'land grab' and other public land at the Hawker Village shops is still, in my opinion, being considered, especially given the lack of ongoing community consultation to date.

Having viewed the proposed Woolworths plans for the area, sometime early last year, and given the general feeling was, additional storeys for 'Boutique' shops was absolutely unnecessary especially given the fact that, within a four/five kilometre radius of Hawker, residents have a huge choice of 'Boutique' shops and Supermarkets, including Woolworths. In other words, another 'Boutique' shopping area is totally unnecessary as is the need to extend the existing Woolworths store.

Sadly, what has been missing in all of the so called 'community gatherings' is any option to just 'make/upgrade/improve the existing centre'. Which I am quite sure is the desire of many in the Hawker area.

Sincerely,

Jan Boshier
