In relation to: Resources in the context of planning review

1. How much budget is allocated for consultation for the current planning review and does this reflects an increase in budget from previous budgets?

Minister Mick Gentleman MLA: The answer to the Member's question is as follows:—

The Planning System Review and Reform work has consultation and engagement identified as a key component of the work. Funding allocated to this work is in the order of $300,000 for consultation and engagement activities. This reflects an increase on previous budgets for policy projects as this is for a major policy project.
