5 SPORT AND RECREATION

Mr Stefaniak, pursuant to notice, moved—That this Assembly:

- (1) notes:
  - (a) the considerable benefit of sport and recreation to the Canberra community;
  - (b) the fact that sport and recreation services are a limited part of the ACT budget, approximately 0.4% of the total ACT budget; and
  - (c) the concerns of the sport and recreation community about the impact of the Functional Review of Government Services; and
- (2) calls on the Government to give a guarantee that the Office of Sport and Recreation ACT will remain in one department and not be spread across a number of departments.

Debate ensued.

Mr Stanhope (Acting Minister for Sport and Recreation), by leave, moved the following amendments together:

- (1) paragraph (1), omit all words after “community”, substitute:
  - “(b) the strong and ongoing commitment to sport and recreation, at all levels in the community, by the ACT Government; and”;
- (2) paragraph (2), omit the paragraph, substitute:
  - “(2) notes that the ACT Government will continue to provide its outstanding support for sport and recreation, from community-based teams and organisations to the elite teams that proudly represent the Territory in national and international competitions.”.
