Mr Peter Cain MLA

Chair, Standing Committee on Justice and Community Safety (Legislative Scrutiny Role)
Legislative Assembly of the Australian Capital Territory
GPO Box 1020
CANBERRA ACT 2601

5 November 2024

Dear Mr Cain

I am writing in response to the Standing Committee of Justice and Community Safety's comment and request for a response on the Victims of Crime (Financial Assistance) Amendment Regulation 2024 (No 1) [SL2024-7] in its Scrutiny Report 45. In that Report, the Committee noted that that the explanatory statement for Regulation contains no discussion of possible human rights issues raised by the subordinate law.

I have brought this to the attention of relevant business units within JACS and will ensure that future drafting of subordinate legislation explanatory statements consider human rights impacts.

By way of clarity for the Committee, in this case, I confirm that there are no human rights impacts for this subordinate legislation.

I trust this information is of assistance to the Committee.

Sincerely

Tara Cheyne MLA
