Bills debated

Courts and Other Justice Legislation Amendment Bill 2018

Summary: This bill will amend a number of ACT statutes by facilitating access to justice by introducing efficiency measures to reduce time required and red tape for people involved in litigation. The bill will introduce measures to assist courts to better administer their procedures and cases to ensure fair outcomes and will also introduce changes to how oaths and affirmations are administered.

Proceedings: Debate resumed on this bill on 20 March with all parties supporting the passage of the proposed legislation.

The bill was passed by the Assembly without amendment.

Workplace Legislation Amendment Bill 2018 —
Summary: This bill will amend the Public Sector Management Act 1994 to outline actions that can be taken to recover overpayments from the salary of a Territory employee. The bill also amends the Workplace Privacy Amendment Act 2016 to provide a framework for surveillance in the workplace to ensure compatibility with information privacy laws in the ACT.

Proceedings: Debate resumed on this bill on 20 March with the Opposition indicating, while supporting the bill in principle, they had concerns with some areas of the bill. The ACT Greens signified their support for the bill. The bill was agreed to in principle. During the detail stage the Opposition moved an amendment to the bill which, after a vote in the Assembly, was not agreed to.

The bill was passed by the Assembly without amendment.

A full record of the debates can be accessed at Hansard.

Ministerial statements

On 20 March the Chief Minister made a statement concerning comments he made at a recent event relating to government communication and the media. During the statement the Chief Minister expressed his regret at making some of the comments and apologised for them.

On 20 March the Minister for Education and Early Childhood Development made a statement concerning cultural identity in ACT schools. During the statement the minister outlined how schools are building cultural identity though engaging with their local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families and communities, learning through the curriculum about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture, celebrating the achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and having high expectations for their Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

The Minister for Housing and Suburban Development made a statement on 22 March highlighting the homelessness data from the 2016 Census which showed that there was a decline in the number of homeless people which occurred in a period when the ACT had an 11% growth in population. The minister also outlined how the Government is helping to reduce homelessness through the single human services gateway which assists with early intervention, sustained support and ensuring that sustainable housing outcomes are working.

The Minister for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Affairs made a ministerial statement on 22 March in relation to the Our Booris, Our Way review into the over-representation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people in the child protection system in the ACT. The steering committee undertaking the review will deliver a preliminary report later this year with the final report due in September 2019.

The following ministerial statements were also made on 20 and 22 March—

The Minister for Women made a statement concerning International Women’s Day 2018.

The Minister for Disability, Children and Youth made a statement updating the Assembly on the progress of the implementation of the ACT Children and Young People’s Commitment 2015-2025.

The Chief Minister made a statement relating to the 2018 Washington delegation.

The full text of the statements made by Ministers and Members can be accessed from the Assembly Hansard site.

Bill introduced

Health (Improving Abortion Access) Amendment Bill 2018

Summary: This bill will amend the Health Act 1993 to improve access to safe and legal abortions for people in the ACT.

Motions debated

Prevention of child sexual abuse was the subject of a motion moved by Mrs Kikkert MLA on 21 March. The motion noted the impact of child sexual abuse on victims and families and called on the Government to provide information to parents and care givers on recognising and responding to suspected abuse. During debate the Minister for Disability, Children and Youth moved an amendment calling on the Government to continue work on making resources available for parents and carers and ensure improved availability, distribution and promotion of these resources. The Opposition moved an amendment to the Minister’s amendment which called on the Government to work with recognised and accredited organisations to ensure information reflects best practice in this area. The Opposition’s amendment to the Minister’s amendment was passed by the Assembly. The Minister’s amendment, as amended, was then agreed to by the Assembly.

The amended motion was passed by the Assembly.

Building regulatory system reform was the subject of a motion moved by Mr Parton MLA on 21 March. The motion noted the issues that arise from poor quality construction and called on the Government to implement the remaining reforms from the Improving the ACT Building Regulatory System—Summary of Proposed Reforms by the end of 2018. During debate the Minister for Planning and Land Management moved an amendment noting the Government’s obligation to ensuring a proper an effective regulatory framework and committed to providing updates to the Assembly on progress in implementing the 43 reforms outlined in the Improving the ACT Building Regulatory System Review. The Government’s amendment was agreed to.

The amended motion was passed by the Assembly.

Other motions debated on 21 March related to:

- Gender equity—Ms Cheyne MLA
- Waramanga—Provision of playground—Mr Hanson MLA
- Housing Affordability and homelessness—Mr Pettersson MLA

The full debate on the above motions can be accessed from the Assembly Hansard site.

Censure motion

On 20 March Mr Coe MLA moved a censure motion against the Chief Minister for his comments in relation to the media. During debate the ACT Greens moved an amendment to the motion noting with concern the comments made by the Chief Minister, acknowledging that the Chief Minister had apologised to the media and the Assembly and affirming the importance of freedom of the press and the role that media and journalists play in our democracy. The amendment also affirmed the commitment to an inclusive Canberra across all ages, racial and religious groups. The amendment was passed after a vote in the Assembly.

The amended motion was agreed to by the Assembly.

The full debate on the above motions can be accessed from the Assembly Hansard site.
