Dear Minister

I am writing to advise that I have received a further anonymous complaint about the CIT CEO claiming to be from a NSW staff member.

The latest complaint alleges that the NSW investigation is complete and that allegations regarding serious wrongdoing and or misconduct were substantiated. The complainant further alleges that the findings have been handed to ICAC and the NSW Ombudsman, but are yet to be made public.

This complaint has been sent to the ACT Integrity Commission. The ACT Integrity Commission has advised that it won't investigate as it relates to conduct in NSW.

I have written to TAFE NSW to seek an update on their investigation and requesting advice as to whether the TAFE NSW investigations are complete and if there are any findings against Dr McNeill. TAFE NSW has responded only with authorisation for Dr McNeill to provide advice. I have discussed this with Dr McNeill and she has advised that the information provided in the anonymous complaint is false.

As I am obligated to report to the Board and discuss the anonymous allegations with Dr McNeill this is causing distress and there is no recourse available due to the anonymity.

I will provide further information to you if there are any further developments in this matter.

Yours sincerely

Kate Lundy
