SPEAKER, CHIEF MINISTER, DEPUTY SPEAKER, LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION AND OFFICERS

This Chapter sets out the procedures for the election of the Speaker, the Chief Minister and the Deputy Speaker, confirmation of the Leader of the Opposition, and processes to deal with absences and vacancies in the offices of the Chief Minister, Speaker, Deputy Speaker and Clerk.

Election of Speaker

2. The election of the Speaker shall be conducted in the following manner:

A Member proposed as Speaker

- (a) At the first meeting of an Assembly after a general election, after the Members present have been sworn, or whenever the office of Speaker becomes vacant, a Member, addressing the Clerk, shall propose a Member who is present, to the Assembly for its Speaker and move that such Member take the Chair of the Assembly as Speaker. A Member when proposed shall inform the Assembly whether the nomination is accepted. (Amended 6 March 2008)

If unopposed, elected

- (b) The Clerk shall then ask if there is any further proposal and, if there is not, shall say that the time for proposals has expired. No Member may then address the Assembly or propose any other Member, and the Clerk shall declare the Member so proposed to have been elected as Speaker, and such Member shall take the Chair of the Assembly as Speaker. (Amended 6 March 2008)

When two or more Members proposed

- (c) If more than one Member is proposed as Speaker, the Clerk shall, after the second proposal, and after each subsequent proposal (if any), is made, ask if there is any further proposal and, if there is not, the Clerk shall say that the time for proposals has expired.

Debate and speech limitation

- (d) When the time for proposals has expired, debate may ensue, but it shall be relevant to the election.
- (e) A Member may not speak for more than 5 minutes.

Election to be proceeded with

- (f) If all Members are not present, the bells shall be rung as in a vote and the election shall then proceed as provided in this standing order. (Amended 6 March 2008)

Mode of decision between candidates

- (g) When only two candidates are proposed as Speaker, each Member shall deliver to the Clerk a ballot-paper in writing, containing the name of the candidate for whom that Member votes. The votes shall be counted by the Clerk and the candidate who has the greater number of votes shall be the Speaker, and take the Chair, provided the candidate also has a majority of the votes of the Members present and voting; if no candidate has such a majority a fresh ballot shall take place. If, after the counting of votes, neither candidate has the required majority the Clerk shall so declare. Thereupon the sitting shall be suspended for 30 minutes and when the Assembly reassembles the votes shall be taken again, unless this is rendered unnecessary by a withdrawal.

Mode of decision when more than two candidates

- (h) When more than two candidates are proposed, the votes shall be taken in like manner. The candidate who has the greatest number of votes shall be the Speaker, provided the candidate also has a majority of the votes of the Members present and voting; if no candidate has such majority, the name of the candidate having the smallest number of votes shall be excluded from subsequent ballots, and a fresh ballot shall take place. This shall be done as often as necessary, until one candidate is declared to be elected as Speaker by such majority, when that candidate shall take the Chair.

Withdrawal of candidate

- (i) At any time after the result of the first ballot is declared, but before the commencement of the second or subsequent ballot, a candidate may withdraw from the election which shall then proceed as if that candidate had not been proposed.

Equality of votes

- (j) If at any ballot it is impossible by reason of the equality of votes to determine which name shall be excluded from subsequent ballots, a special ballot shall take place at which there shall be submitted only the names of those candidates who have received equal votes. At such special ballot each Member shall write on a ballot-paper only the name of the candidate that Member wishes to retain. The candidate whose name appears upon the smallest number of ballot-papers shall then be excluded from subsequent ballots.
- (k) If by reason of equality of votes a ballot or special ballot is rendered inconclusive, the Clerk shall so declare and, unless by a withdrawal another ballot or (as the case may be) another special ballot is rendered unnecessary, another ballot or special ballot shall be taken. If, after the counting of votes, the equality continues the Clerk shall so declare. Thereupon the sitting shall be suspended for 30 minutes and when the Assembly reassembles the votes shall be taken again, unless this is rendered unnecessary by a withdrawal.

One candidate remaining

- (l) Whenever at any stage a withdrawal leaves only one candidate remaining that candidate shall, without further voting, be declared elected as Speaker and shall then take the Chair.

Speaker takes Chair

- (m) Having moved to the Chair, the Member elected returns acknowledgments to the Assembly for the honour conferred, and then sits in the Chair.

Election of Chief Minister

3. The election of the Chief Minister shall be conducted in the following manner:

Member proposed by motion

- (a) At the first meeting of an Assembly after a general election and after the Speaker has been elected, or whenever the office of Chief Minister becomes vacant, or immediately following the agreement of a motion of want of confidence in a Chief Minister in accordance with standing order 81, a Member shall propose a Member as Chief Minister, and move that such Member be elected Chief Minister for the Territory.

A Member when proposed shall inform the Assembly whether the nomination is accepted. (Amended 6 March 2008)

If unopposed, elected

- (b) The Speaker shall then ask if there is any further proposal and, if there is not, shall say that the time for proposals has expired. No Member may then address the Assembly or propose any other Member as Chief Minister. The Speaker shall then declare the Member proposed to have been elected as Chief Minister. (Amended 6 March 2008)

When two or more Members proposed

- (c) If more than one Member is proposed as Chief Minister, the Speaker shall, after the second proposal and after each subsequent proposal (if any), ask if there is any further proposal and, if there is no further proposal, the Speaker shall say that the time for proposals has expired.

Debate and speech limitation

- (d) When the time for proposals has expired, debate may ensue, but it shall be relevant to the election.
- (e) A Member may not speak for more than 5 minutes.

Election to be proceeded with

- (f) If all Members are not present, the bells shall be rung as in a vote and the election shall then proceed as provided in this standing order. (Amended 6 March 2008)

Mode of decision between candidates

- (g) When only two Members are proposed as Chief Minister, each Member shall deliver to the Clerk a ballot-paper in writing, containing the name of the candidate for whom that Member votes. The votes shall be counted by the Clerk and the candidate who has the greater number of votes shall be declared by the Speaker to be the Chief Minister, provided the candidate also has a majority of the votes of the Members present and voting; if no candidate has such a majority a fresh ballot shall take place. If, after the counting of votes, neither candidate has the required majority the Speaker shall so declare. Thereupon the sitting shall be suspended for 30 minutes and when the Assembly reassembles the votes shall be taken again, unless this is rendered unnecessary by a withdrawal.

Mode of decision when more than two candidates

- (h) When more than two Members are proposed as Chief Minister, the votes shall be taken in like manner. The candidate who has the greatest number of votes shall be the Chief Minister, provided the candidate also has a majority of the votes of the Members present and voting; if no candidate has such majority, the name of the candidate having the smallest number of votes shall be excluded from subsequent ballots, and a fresh ballot shall take place. This shall be done as often as necessary until one candidate is declared to be elected as Chief Minister by such majority.

Withdrawal of candidate

- (i) At any time after the result of the first ballot is declared, but before the commencement of the second or subsequent ballot, a candidate may withdraw from the election which shall then proceed as if that candidate had not been proposed.

Equality of votes

- (j) If at any ballot it is impossible by reason of the equality of votes to determine which name shall be excluded from subsequent ballots, a special ballot shall take place at which there shall be submitted only the names of those candidates who have received equal votes. At such special ballot each Member shall write on a ballot-paper only the name of the candidate that Member wishes to retain. The candidate whose name appears upon the smallest number of ballot-papers shall then be excluded from subsequent ballots.
- (k) If by reason of equality of votes a ballot or special ballot is rendered inconclusive, the Speaker shall so declare and, unless by a withdrawal another ballot or (as the case may be) another special ballot is rendered unnecessary, another ballot or special ballot shall be taken. If, after the counting of votes, the equality continues the Speaker shall so declare. Thereupon the sitting shall be suspended for 30 minutes and when the Assembly reassembles the votes shall be taken again, unless this is rendered unnecessary by a withdrawal.

One candidate remaining

- (l) Whenever at any stage a withdrawal leaves only one candidate remaining, that candidate shall, without further voting, be declared elected as Chief Minister.

Election of Deputy Speaker

4. On the first day of meeting of the Assembly after an election, or whenever the office becomes vacant, a Member, not being a Minister, shall be elected by the Assembly to be Deputy Speaker.
5. The election of the Deputy Speaker shall be conducted by the Speaker in a similar manner to the election of the Speaker.

Member refuses

258. If a committee desires the attendance of a Member as a witness, the Chair of the committee shall, in writing, request that Member to attend; should the Member refuse to come, or to give evidence or information as a witness to the committee, the committee shall advise the Assembly, and not again request the Member to attend the committee. (Amended 6 March 2008)

Committee not to entertain allegations against Members

259. If any information comes before any committee that makes allegations against the conduct of any Member of the Assembly, the committee ought only direct that the Assembly be acquainted with the matter of the information, without proceeding further. (Amended 6 March 2008)

260. (Standing Order omitted 6 March 2008)

Witnesses entitled to protection

261. All witnesses examined before the Assembly, or any of its committees, are entitled to the protection of the Assembly in respect of anything that may be said by them in their evidence.

Witnesses before Assembly examined by Speaker

262. When a witness appears before the Assembly, that witness shall be examined by the Speaker, and any questions addressed by the Members are taken to be put through the Speaker.

Witness withdraws if question objected to

263. If any question is objected to, or other matter arises, the witness shall withdraw while the same is under discussion.

Officers not to give evidence without leave

264. An officer of the Assembly, or person employed by the Assembly, may not give evidence elsewhere in respect of any proceedings or examination of any witness without the special leave of the Assembly.

Dealing with witnesses

- 264A. In their dealings with witnesses, all committees of the Assembly shall observe the following procedures:
- (a) A witness shall be invited to attend a committee meeting to give evidence. A witness shall be summoned to appear (whether or not the witness was previously invited to appear) only where the committee has made a decision that the circumstances warrant the issue of a summons.
 - (b) Where a committee desires that a witness produce documents relevant to the committee's inquiry, the witness shall be invited to do so, and an order that documents be produced shall be made (whether or not an invitation to produce documents has previously been made) only where the committee has made a decision that the circumstances warrant such an order.
 - (c) A witness shall be given reasonable notice of a meeting at which the witness is to appear, and shall be supplied with a copy of the committee's terms of reference, a statement of the matters expected to be dealt with during the witness's appearance, and a copy of these procedures. Where appropriate a witness shall be supplied with a transcript of relevant evidence already taken.
 - (d) A witness shall be given opportunity to make a submission in writing before appearing to give oral evidence.
 - (e) Where appropriate, reasonable opportunity shall be given for a witness to raise any matters of concern to the witness relating to the witness's submission or the evidence the witness is to give before the witness appears at a meeting.
 - (f) A witness shall be given reasonable access to any documents that the witness has produced to a committee.
 - (g) A witness shall be offered, before giving evidence, the opportunity to make application, before or during the hearing of the witness's evidence, for any or all of the witness's evidence to be heard in private session, and shall be invited to give reasons for any such application. If the application is not granted, the witness shall be notified of reasons for that decision.
 - (h) Before giving any evidence in private session a witness shall be informed whether it is the intention of the committee to publish or present to the Assembly all or part of that evidence, that it is within the power of the committee to do so, and that the Assembly has the authority to order the production and publication of undisclosed evidence.

- (i) A chair of a committee shall take care to ensure that all questions put to a witness are relevant to the committee's inquiry and that the information sought by those questions is necessary for the purpose of that inquiry. Where a Member of a committee requests discussion of a ruling of the Chair on this matter, the committee shall deliberate in private session and determine whether any question which is the subject of the ruling is to be permitted.
- (j) Where a witness objects to answering any question put to the witness on any ground, including the ground that the question is not relevant or that the answer may incriminate the witness, the witness shall be invited to state the ground upon which objection to answering the question is taken. Unless the committee determines immediately that the question should not be pressed, the committee shall then consider in private session whether it will insist upon an answer to the question, having regard to the relevance of the question to the committee's inquiry and the importance to the inquiry of the information sought by the question. If the committee determines that it requires an answer to the question, the witness shall be informed of that determination and the reasons for the determination, and shall be required to answer the question only in private session unless the committee determines that it is essential to the committee's inquiry that the question be answered in public session. Where a witness declines to answer a question to which a committee has required an answer, the committee shall report the facts to the Assembly.
- (k) A witness accompanied by counsel shall be given reasonable opportunity to consult counsel during a meeting at which the witness appears.
- (l) An officer of a department of the Territory or the Commonwealth or a state shall not be asked to give opinions on matters of policy, and shall be given reasonable opportunity to refer questions asked of the officer to superior officers or to a Minister.
- (m) Reasonable opportunity shall be afforded to a witness to make corrections of errors of transcription in the transcript of their evidence and to put before a committee additional material supplementary to their evidence.

Contempt – Matters constituting contempt

A Member shall not ask for, receive or obtain, any property or benefit for the Member, or another person, on any understanding that the Member will be influenced in the discharge of the Member's duties, or enter into any contract, understanding or arrangement having the effect, or which may have the effect, of controlling or limiting the Member's independence or freedom of action as a Member, or pursuant to which the Member is in any way to act as the representative of any outside body in the discharge of the Member's duties.

Contempt – Criteria to be taken into account when dealing with matters of contempt

278. The Assembly will take into account the following criteria when determining whether matters possibly involving contempt should be referred to a Select Committee on Privilege and whether a contempt has been committed, and requires the committee to take these criteria into account when inquiring into any matter referred to it:
- (a) the principle that the Assembly's power to adjudge and deal with contempts should be used only where it is necessary to provide reasonable protection for the Assembly and its committees and for Members against improper acts tending substantially to obstruct them in the performance of their functions, and should not be used in respect of matters which appear to be of a trivial nature or unworthy of the attention of the Assembly;

- (b) the existence of any remedy other than that power for any act which may be held to be a contempt; and
- (c) whether a person who committed any act which may be held to be a contempt:
 - (i) knowingly committed that act, or
 - (ii) had any reasonable excuse for the commission of that act. (Inserted 6 March 2008)

Privilege – Criteria to be taken into account by the Speaker in determining whether a matter of privilege should be given precedence over other business

279. In determining whether a matter of privilege merits precedence over other business the Speaker shall have regard only to the following criteria:

- (a) the principle that the Assembly’s power to adjudge and deal with contempts should be used only where it is necessary to provide reasonable protection for the Assembly and its committees and for Members against improper acts tending substantially to obstruct them in the performance of their functions, and should not be used in respect of matters which appear to be of a trivial nature or unworthy of the attention of the Assembly; and
- (b) the existence of any remedy other than that power for any act which may be held to be a contempt. (Inserted 6 March 2008)

Procedures for the protection of witnesses before a Privileges Committee

280. In considering any matter referred to it which may involve, or gives rise to any allegation of, a contempt, a committee dealing with a matter of privilege that has been referred to it by the Assembly shall observe these procedures, in addition to the procedures set out in standing order 264A. Where this standing order is inconsistent with the procedures in standing order 264A this standing order shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

- (a) A person shall, as soon as practicable, be informed, in writing, of the nature of any allegations, known to the committee and relevant to the committee’s inquiry, against the person, and of the particulars of any evidence which has been given in respect of the person.
- (b) The committee shall extend to that person all reasonable opportunity to respond to such allegations and evidence by:
 - (i) making written submission to the committee;
 - (ii) giving evidence before the committee;
 - (iii) having other evidence placed before the committee; and
 - (iv) having witnesses examined before the committee.
- (c) Where oral evidence is given containing any allegation against, or reflecting adversely on, a person, the committee shall ensure as far as possible that that person is present during the hearing of that evidence, and shall afford all reasonable opportunity for that person to examine witnesses in relation to that evidence.

- (d) A person appearing before the committee may be accompanied by counsel, and shall be given all reasonable opportunity to consult counsel during that appearance.
- (e) A witness shall not be required to answer in public session any question where the committee has reason to believe that the answer may incriminate the witness.
- (f) Hearing of evidence by the committee shall be conducted in public session, except where:
 - (i) the committee accedes to a request by a witness that the evidence of that witness be heard in private session;
 - (ii) the committee determines that the interests of a witness would best be protected by hearing evidence in private session; or
 - (iii) the committee considers that circumstances are otherwise such as to warrant the hearing of evidence in private session.
- (g) As soon as practicable after the committee has determined findings to be included in the committee's report to the Assembly, and prior to the presentation of the report, a person affected by those findings shall be acquainted with the findings and afforded all reasonable opportunity to make submissions to the committee, in writing and orally, on those findings. The committee shall take such submissions into account before making its report to the Assembly.
- (h) Before appearing before the committee a witness shall be given a copy of this standing order. (Inserted 6 March 2008)

CLAIMS OF PARLIAMENTARY PRIVILEGE THAT ARISE DURING THE EXERCISE OF THE ACT INTEGRITY COMMISSION'S POWERS AND FUNCTIONS

This resolution provides for dealing with claims of parliamentary privilege that arise during the exercise of the ACT Integrity Commission's powers and functions.

Resolution agreed by the Assembly

29 November 2018

Preamble

- (4) The Assembly:
- (a) reserves all its powers, privileges and immunities, and those of its Members, derived from all sources of law;
 - (b) affirms that parliamentary privilege attaches to all words spoken and acts done in the course of, or for purposes of or incidental to, the transacting of the business of the Assembly or an Assembly committee, including to documents and information falling within the scope of "proceedings in Parliament" as provided for in article 9 of the Bill of Rights 1689 and section 16 of the Parliamentary Privileges Act 1987 (Cwlth);
 - (c) acknowledges that pursuant to the Integrity Commission Act 2018, statutory powers and functions have been vested in the ACT Integrity Commission to investigate and report on corruption in the ACT and that the Commission is empowered, subject to that Act, to investigate allegations of corrupt conduct involving a Member of the Legislative Assembly;
 - (d) acknowledges that there may be occasions where the exercise of the Commission's powers and functions gives rise to a claim, by a Member, of parliamentary privilege; and
 - (e) resolves that where such a claim is made, it will be addressed and resolved in accordance with the arrangements and principles provided for in this continuing resolution.

Compulsory production of documents

- (5) Where the Integrity Commission or a person acting under the direction of the Commission purports to compulsorily inspect, examine, make a record of, copy, or take possession of a document held by a Member, the Member is entitled to claim that parliamentary privilege applies to the document. "Document" has the meaning provided for in the Legislation Act 2001.
- (6) The Commission must advise a Member that they are entitled to the opportunity to make a claim relating to parliamentary privilege prior to the purported exercise of a compulsory power to inspect, examine, make a record of, copy, or take possession of any document. Where a claim is to be made, it must be notified by the Member to: a) the Commission or a person acting under the direction of the Commission; and b) to the Speaker. In the first instance, a claim may be made in general terms and verbally.

- (7) Where a Member makes a claim in relation to parliamentary privilege, the Commission or a person acting under the direction of the Commission must not inspect, examine, make a record of, copy, or take possession of any document over which a claim has been made until such time as parliamentary privilege has been determined not to apply pursuant to this resolution or that claim has been withdrawn. Any document that is the subject of a claim must be placed in the secure custody of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
- (8) Within five calendar days of a claim having been made by a Member that parliamentary privilege applies to a document, the Member must write to the Speaker and the Commissioner advising of the scope and basis of the claim. The Speaker must provide the Member's written advice of a claim to the Standing Committee on Administration and Procedure within five calendar days of its receipt.
- (9) Where a Member makes a claim in relation to parliamentary privilege over a document, the Commissioner must notify the Member and the Speaker whether or not the Commission intends to dispute the claim. The notification may be given verbally in the first instance. Where no such notification is given, any document the subject of the claim will be returned to the Member.
- (10) Within five calendar days of the receipt of the Member's written advice outlining the scope and basis of the claim, the Commissioner must either give notification that the claim is not disputed or write to the Speaker and the Member advising of the scope and basis of the dispute of the claim. The Speaker must provide the Commissioner's written advice of a dispute to the Standing Committee on Administration and Procedure within five calendar days of receipt.
- (11) The Speaker must appoint an Independent Legal Arbiter to adjudicate any claim that is disputed by the Commissioner. Upon the appointment of an Arbiter, the Clerk must hand over custody to the Arbiter any document that is the subject of the disputed claim. The Clerk must return any document to the Member over which there is an undisputed claim. The Speaker may make available to the Arbiter a secure space within the Legislative Assembly precincts to facilitate examination of any document that is the subject of a claim.
- (12) Upon appointment, the Speaker must make the Member's and Commissioner's written advices available to the Arbiter. The Arbiter may seek written submissions from the Member and the Commissioner in which any additional reasons for or against a claim or related information may be stated.
- (13) The Arbiter must review each document that is the subject of a claim and determine whether or not the document falls within the scope of the "proceedings in Parliament". Where there is a large volume of material that is the subject of a claim, the Arbiter may receive assistance from a person acting under the direction of the Arbiter to review the material.
- (14) Where the Arbiter determines that a document does fall within the scope of "proceedings in Parliament", it is protected by parliamentary privilege and it will be returned to the Member.

- (15) Where the Arbiter determines that a document does not fall within the scope “proceedings in Parliament”, it is not protected by parliamentary privilege and it will be provided to the Commissioner (subject to any other lawful requirement that may have been imposed).
- (16) The Arbiter’s determination must: be in writing; include reasons; and be transmitted by the Arbiter to the Member, the Commissioner, and the Speaker. The Speaker is required to provide a copy of the Arbiter’s determination to the Standing Committee on Administration and Procedure within five calendar days of its receipt.

Examination or questioning

- (17) Where a Member appears under summons to give evidence before the Commission, the Member is entitled to decline to answer a question on the basis that the information in answer to the question is protected by parliamentary privilege.
- (18) Where a claim is made by a Member that the information in answer to a question is protected by parliamentary privilege, it is open to the Commissioner to:
 - (a) withdraw the question; or
 - (b) advise the Member that the Commissioner intends to dispute the claim of parliamentary privilege.
- (19) Where a Member makes a claim relating to parliamentary privilege under examination, the Member must advise the Speaker and the Commissioner in writing as to the scope and basis of the claim within five calendar days of the claim being made. The Speaker must provide the Member’s written advice to the Standing Committee on Administration and Procedure within five calendar days of its receipt.
- (20) Where the Commissioner disputes a claim made by a Member under examination, the Commissioner must advise the Speaker and the Member in writing as to the scope and basis of the dispute of the claim within five calendar days of the receipt of the Member’s written advice of a claim. The Speaker must provide the Commissioner’s written advice to the Standing Committee on Administration and Procedure within five calendar days of its receipt.
- (21) Where the Speaker receives advice from the Commissioner that a disputed claim of parliamentary privilege has arisen in the course of an examination, the Speaker must appoint an Independent Legal Arbiter to adjudicate the claim. The Speaker must provide to the Arbiter the Member’s written claim and the Commissioner’s written dispute of the claim.
- (22) The Arbiter may seek written submissions from the Member and the Commissioner in which any additional reasons for or against a claim or related information may be stated.
- (23) Where the Arbiter determines that the information sought by the Commissioner, by way of a question asked under examination, does fall within the scope of “proceedings in Parliament”, an immunity from the provision of that information to the Commission will operate by reason of parliamentary privilege.

- (24) Where the Arbiter determines that the information sought by the Commissioner, by way of a question asked under examination, does not fall within the scope of “proceedings in Parliament”, no immunity by reason of parliamentary privilege will operate.
- (25) The Arbiter’s determination must: be in writing; include reasons; and be transmitted by the Arbiter to the Member, the Commissioner, and the Speaker. The Speaker is required to provide a copy of the Arbiter’s determination to the Standing Committee on Administration and Procedure within five calendar days of its receipt.
- (26) In determining a question of parliamentary privilege in relation to a question that is posed or information that is sought during an examination, the Arbiter may express the determination:
- by way of specific questions that, if asked, would or would not engage the privilege;
 - by way of more general areas of inquiry that, if explored, would or would not engage the privilege; or
 - in some other way that clarifies the limits of the operation of parliamentary privilege.

Making a determination

- (27) The Arbiter may, but is not bound to, apply the following test to determine whether or not a document that is sought pursuant to a compulsory production power or information that is sought pursuant to a compulsory examination falls within “proceedings in Parliament”.

STEP 1: Were the documents or information that is sought brought into existence in the course of, or for purposes of or incidental to, the transacting of business of the Assembly or an Assembly committee?

YES → Falls within the scope of “proceedings in Parliament” and parliamentary privilege applies.

NO → Move to step 2.

STEP 2: Have the documents or the information that is sought been subsequently used in the course of, or for purposes of or incidental to, the transacting of the business of the Assembly or an Assembly committee?

by the Commissioner in the course of an examination is not covered by parliamentary privilege.

- (28) In determining whether or not parliamentary privilege applies to a document or information that is sought, the Arbiter must have regard to:
- the written claim made by the Member;

- (30) Documents or information that are unlikely to be within the scope of "proceedings in Parliament" include material relating to a Member's travel or entitlements, or party-political material.

LATIMER HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Endorsement of the Commonwealth (Latimer) House Principles on the Three Branches of Government

Resolution agreed by the Assembly

11 December 2008 (amended 23 February 2012)

That:

(1) Preamble

Members of the Legislative Assembly endorse and adopt the Commonwealth (Latimer) House Principles on the Three Branches of Government as agreed by Law Ministers and endorsed by the Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting, Abuja, Nigeria, 2003.

Members do so in acknowledgment that the principles express the fundamental values they believe should govern the relationship between the three branches of government in the Australian Capital Territory.

The Principles

(2) Objective

The objective of these Principles is to provide, in accordance with the laws and customs of each Commonwealth country, an effective framework for the implementation by governments, parliaments and judiciaries of the Commonwealth's fundamental values.

(a) The Three Branches of Government

Each Commonwealth country's parliaments, executives and judiciaries are the guarantors in their respective spheres of the rule of law, the promotion and protection of fundamental human rights and the entrenchment of good governance based on the highest standards of honesty, probity and accountability.

(b) Parliament and the Judiciary

- (i) Relations between parliament and the judiciary should be governed by respect for parliament's primary responsibility for law making on the one hand and for the judiciary's responsibility for the interpretation and application of the law on the other hand.
- (ii) Judiciaries and parliaments should fulfil their respective but critical roles in the promotion of the rule of law in a complementary and constructive manner.

(c) Independence of Parliamentarians

- (i) Parliamentarians must be able to carry out their legislative and constitutional functions in accordance with the Constitution, free from unlawful interference.
- (ii) Criminal and defamation laws should not be used to restrict legitimate criticism of parliament; the offence of contempt of parliament should be narrowly drawn and reporting of the proceedings of parliament should not be unduly restricted by narrow application of the defence of qualified privilege.

(d) Independence of the Judiciary

An independent, impartial, honest and competent judiciary is integral to upholding the rule of law, engendering public confidence and dispensing justice. The function of the judiciary is to interpret and apply national constitutions and legislation, consistent with international human rights conventions and international law, to the extent permitted by the domestic law of each Commonwealth country.

To secure these aims:

- (i) Judicial appointments should be made on the basis of clearly defined criteria and by a publicly declared process. The process should ensure:
 - (A) equality of opportunity for all who are eligible for judicial office;
 - (B) appointment on merit; and
 - (C) that appropriate consideration is given to the need for the progressive attainment of gender equity and the removal of other historic factors of discrimination.
- (ii) Arrangements for appropriate security of tenure and protection of levels of remuneration must be in place.
- (iii) Adequate resources should be provided for the judicial system to operate effectively without any undue constraints which may hamper the independence sought.
- (iv) Interaction, if any, between the executive and the judiciary should not compromise judicial independence. Judges should be subject to suspension or removal only for reasons of incapacity or misbehaviour that clearly renders them unfit to discharge their duties. Court proceedings should, unless the law or overriding public interest otherwise dictates, be open to the public. Superior Court decisions should be published and accessible to the public and be given in a timely manner. An independent, effective and competent legal profession is fundamental to the upholding of the rule of law and the independence of the judiciary.

(e) Public Office Holders

- (i) Merit and proven integrity, should be the criteria of eligibility for appointment to public office.

- (ii) Subject to (i), measures may be taken, where possible and appropriate, to ensure that the holders of all public offices generally reflect the composition of the community in terms of gender, ethnicity, social and religious groups and regional balance.
- (f) Ethical Governance

Ministers, members of parliament, judicial officers and public office holders in each jurisdiction should respectively develop, adopt and periodically review appropriate guidelines for ethical conduct. These should address the issue of conflict of interest, whether actual or perceived, with a view to enhancing transparency, accountability and public confidence.
- (g) Accountability Mechanisms
 - (i) Executive Accountability to Parliament

Parliaments and governments should maintain high standards of accountability, transparency and responsibility in the conduct of all public business. Parliamentary procedures should provide adequate mechanisms to enforce the accountability of the executive to parliament.
 - (ii) Judicial Accountability

Judges are accountable to the Constitution and to the law which they must apply honestly, independently and with integrity. The principles of judicial accountability and independence underpin public confidence in the judicial system and the importance of the judiciary as one of the three pillars upon which a responsible government relies. In addition to providing proper procedures for the removal of judges on grounds of incapacity or misbehaviour that are required to support the principle of independence of the judiciary, any disciplinary procedures should be fairly and objectively administered. Disciplinary proceedings which might lead to the removal of a judicial officer should include appropriate safeguards to ensure fairness. The criminal law and contempt proceedings should not be used to restrict legitimate criticism of the performance of judicial functions.
 - (iii) Judicial review

Best democratic principles require that the actions of governments are open to scrutiny by the courts, to ensure that decisions taken comply with the Constitution, with relevant statutes and other law, including the law relating to the principles of natural justice.
- (h) The law-making process

In order to enhance the effectiveness of law making as an essential element of the good governance agenda:

 - (i) there should be adequate parliamentary examination of proposed legislation;

- (ii) where appropriate, opportunity should be given for public input into the legislative process; and
 - (iii) parliaments should, where relevant, be given the opportunity to consider international instruments or regional conventions agreed to by governments.
- (i) Oversight of Government
- The promotion of zero-tolerance for corruption is vital to good governance. A transparent and accountable government, together with freedom of expression, encourages the full participation of its citizens in the democratic process. Steps which may be taken to encourage public sector accountability include:
- (i) The establishment of scrutiny bodies and mechanisms to oversee government, enhances public confidence in the integrity and acceptability of government's activities. Independent bodies such as public accounts committees, ombudsmen, human rights commissions, auditors-general, anti-corruption commissions, information commissioners and similar oversight institutions can play a key role in enhancing public awareness of good governance and rule of law issues. Governments are encouraged to establish or enhance appropriate oversight bodies in accordance with national circumstances.
 - (ii) Government's transparency and accountability is promoted by an independent and vibrant media which is responsible, objective and impartial and which is protected by law in its freedom to report and comment upon public affairs.
- (j) Civil Society
- Parliaments and governments should recognise the role that civil society plays in the implementation of the Commonwealth's fundamental values and should strive for a constructive relationship with civil society to ensure that there is broader opportunity for lawful participation in the democratic process.
- (2A) In the second year after a general election, following consultation with the Standing Committee on Administration and Procedure, the Speaker shall appoint a suitably qualified person to conduct an assessment of the implementation of the Latimer House Principles in the governance of the ACT with the resultant report:
- (a) to be tabled in the Legislative Assembly by the Speaker; and
 - (b) to be referred to the Standing Committee on Administration and Procedure for inquiry and report.
- (3) This resolution has effect from the commencement of the Seventh Assembly and continues in force unless and until amended or repealed by this or subsequent Assembly.

Continuing resolution 8B

PUBLIC INTEREST IMMUNITY

This resolution provides guidance to Ministers and public officials as to the process for raising public interest immunity claims during committee proceedings.

Resolution agreed by the Assembly

30 June 2011

In order to provide Ministers and public officials with guidance as to the proper process for raising public interest immunity claims in the course of a proceeding of a committee, this Assembly adopts the following procedure:

- (1) If:
 - (a) an Assembly committee requests information from a directorate, agency or Territory-owned corporation; and
 - (b) an officer of the directorate, agency or Territory-owned corporation to whom the request is directed believes that it may not be in the public interest to disclose the information or document to the committee, the officer will be given reasonable opportunity to refer the request to a superior officer or to a Minister, in accordance with standing order 264A (o).
- (2) If a Minister, on a reference by an officer under paragraph (1), concludes that it would not be in the public interest to disclose the information or document to the committee, the Minister shall provide to the committee a statement of the ground for that conclusion, specifying the harm to the public interest that could result from the disclosure of the information or document.
- (3) A Minister, in a statement under paragraph (2), shall indicate whether the harm to the public interest that could result from the disclosure of the information or document to the committee could result only from the publication of the information or document by the committee, or could result, equally or in part, from the disclosure of the information or document to the committee as confidential evidence.
- (4) If, after considering a statement by a Minister provided under paragraph (2), the committee concludes that the statement does not sufficiently justify the withholding of the information or document from the committee, the committee shall report the matter to the Assembly.
- (5) A decision by a committee not to report a matter to the Assembly under paragraph (4) does not prevent a Member from raising the matter in the Assembly in accordance with other procedures of the Assembly.

- (6) A statement that information or a document is not published, or is confidential, or consists of advice to, or internal deliberations of, government, in the absence of specification of the harm to the public interest that could result from the disclosure of the information or document, is not a statement that meets the requirements of paragraphs (2) or (3).
- (7) If a Minister concludes that a statement under paragraph (2) should more appropriately be made by the head of an agency or Territory-owned corporation, by reason of the independence of that agency or Territory-owned corporation from ministerial direction or control, the Minister shall inform the committee of that conclusion and the reason for that conclusion, and shall refer the matter to the head of the agency, who shall then be required to provide a statement in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).
- (8) This resolution has effect from the date of its passage in the Assembly and continues in force unless and until amended or repealed by this or a subsequent Assembly.
