

Invasive Species Treatment African Lovegrass

This map does not indicate all African lovegrass infestations within the ACT. It represent areas where control is undertaken. This control is predominantly prioritised to protect areas where environmental values are impacted on by African Lovegrass. African Lovegrass is widespread throughout the urban area and in most cases not feasible to control.

