Elizabeth Kikkert MLA: To ask the Minister for the Prevention of Domestic and Family Violence

Ref: The Prevention of Domestic and Family Violence Budget Statements G, p 4. (CSD)

In relation to: The ACT Public Service Domestic and Family Violence Training Strategy

Date (Question Lodged by Member): 30/08/2022

Date (Question Sent to DLO): 05/09/2022

- 1. How will the ACT Government improve the capability of the ACT Public Service and recognise and respond to domestic and family violence through this training strategy?
- 2. Can the Minister please provide a list of all frontline government worker categories who work in the Domestic and Family Violence sector, and the current status of their domestic and family violence training (including details about what training may be further required)?
- 3. Can the Minister please provide a list of all non-frontline government worker categories and the current status of their domestic and family violence training (including details about what training may be further required)?

30 August 2022

Minister Berry: The answer to the Member's question is as follows: –

1. The ACT Public Service Domestic and Family Violence Training Strategy provides ACT Public Service employees with the knowledge and skills to recognise and respond effectively to clients and colleagues experiencing domestic and family violence. The training supports ACT Government employees to provide support to individuals who disclose violence, and act as a trusted point of referral.
2. The ACT Government cannot respond to the question. The ACT Government does not group workers into categories and cannot provide this information.
3. The ACT Government cannot respond to the question. The ACT Government does not group workers into categories and cannot provide this information.
