Dear Chair JEREMY

Thank you for the opportunity to discuss the important matters before your Committee yesterday morning.

I have been reflecting on my last answer and believe I may have not made myself entirely clear, as we had reached the end of the hearing and were overtime. In the interest of providing clarity as soon as possible I am writing to clarify that the advice I received from the Solicitor-General is subject to legal professional privilege, and the Territory does not waive that privilege and therefore I am unable to provide that advice to the Committee.

Yours sincerely

MG
Mick Gentleman MLA
