Subject: re: A.C.T. Prostitution Inquiry

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my concern about the issue of legalised prostitution in the A.C.T. I am wholeheartedly in support of equality and safety for women and it would seem to me from the information I have read and heard that the existence of legalised brothels does nothing of value to support this. Rather I believe it devalues women and fosters an environment where human trafficking can exist and potentially flourish with those responsible being able to excuse their actions. I am appalled at the prospect of Canberra being a part of what, in my opinion, constitutes a form of slavery. Do we really want to be known for such things as this and attract people who condone human trafficking?

I encourage the investigation into the "Swedish Model" that deals with this issue in what appears to be a much more effective manner than that which we presently have in existence here.

Yours sincerely,
Judy Seach
